INTRODUCTION

The 23rd edition of Rothmans Football Yearbook continues the policy of covering as much of the world game as possible, with the emphasis again on the domestic scene. As in recent editions, every one of the Football League clubs has a full page photograph of the 1991–92 squad and six pages in all devoted to each team. The recently returned club Colchester United are also featured. This edition also shows a significant increase in the number of overall pages.

Transfer fees for players moving between League clubs are again indicated, but only tribunal transactions are officially published and the others are those universally reported at the time. For each of the League clubs there are new stories in the 'Did You Know' category.

On the international scene, the directory of nations in FIFA again includes full addresses, there is full coverage of the 1992 European Championship, fixtures for the 1994 World Cup and results to date in that competition. There is also a short directory of the venues for the USA in 1994.

For the first time there are pages devoted to women's football both at domestic and international level which acknowledge the growth in this section of the game.

Again because of the many changes in the Laws of the Game, the latest amendments are included at the end of the existing laws.

The Editor would like to thank Maurice Golesworthy for historical notes on the clubs, Alan Elliott for the Scottish section and Norman Barrett for the Milestones diary. Thanks are also due to John English, whose painstaking and conscientious reading of the proofs has been of invaluable assistance in the preparation of the book as well as editorial assistance from Glenda Meeson, Sara Thompson and Christine Forrest.

The Editor would also like to pay tribute to the various organisations who have helped to make this edition complete, especially Sheila Murphy of the Football League, Mike Foster of the FA Premier League and the secretaries of all the Football League and Scottish League clubs for their kind co-operation. The ready availability of Football League secretary David Dent and his staff to answer queries was as usual most appreciated especially Ian Cotton and Chris Hull and thanks are due in equal measure to the Scottish Football League.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Editor would also like to express his appreciation of the following individuals and organisations for their co-operation: Glynis Firth, Sandra Whiteside, Lorna Parnell, Debbie Birch and Jenny Nash (all from the Football League), David C. Thompson of The Scottish League, Malcolm Stammers (FA of Wales), Alan Dick, Malcolm Brodie, Bob Hennessy, Peter Hughes (English Schools FA), W. P. Goss (AFA), Ken Scott for GM Vauxhall Conference information, Rev. Nigel Sands, Edward Grayson, Ken Goldman, Andy Howland and Don Aldridge.

Special appreciation is due to Lorraine Jerram of Headline Book Publishing plc for her patience, understanding and support as well as encouragement and also thanks to former colleagues Caroline North and Sarah Barratt.

Finally sincere thanks to the production staff at Page Bros (Norwich) Ltd for their efforts in the production of this book which was much appreciated in the final stages.

EDITORIAL

Association Football was once the people's game. Now it belongs to the times and the sky's the limit. The passing of the old style Football League deserves a suitable period of mourning, but the birth of a competition of such stature as the FA Premier League, must be encouraged whatever the misgivings attendant upon it.

This is no underprivileged infant, offering a begging bowl; the newcomer was born clutching a lucrative £304 million dish from BSkyB and the BBC over five years. But for the armchair fan it may well become an expensive hobby for the luxury of watching its development twice a week with hints of pay-to-view in the future. He must now put his money where his house is . . . This is unless he decides to stay with ITV and its intermittent schedule of Division One fare, from the economy size Football League, or go continental via Channel 4, to view the likes of exiles Paul Gascoigne, Des Walker and David Platt in the Italian League. There will also be the return of recorded highlights on the BBC. One recent opinion poll reported only three percent of non-satellite owners were prepared to invest. But we know about lies, damn lies and polls.

The revolution which brought about the formation of a super league did not achieve its original aim of an 18-club top division to allow the international team to breathe. Did anyone expect it? Fewer fixtures would in reality present problems for clubs, footballers and spectators alike. The fans would have to pay more or the players accept reduced salaries because of the loss of clubs' income, unless finance outside the game continues to grow despite the recession. And will other smaller clubs follow Aldershot into reduced circumstances?

On another front the England manager Graham Taylor was right when he said that once the League season ends and the FA Cup is out of the way, everyone expects the national side to be up and running for either of the major competitions, the European Championship or the World Cup. But averaging 12 games a season, the international fixture list is itself a formidable addition to the demands on players with clubs in the top echelon of the game.

This coming season will see a further attempt at the prevention of time-wasting with the introduction of a measure to prevent the goalkeeper being brought into action by his own players from up to half the length of the field, by restricting his right to handle the ball at all times. But it was the over-protection of the goalkeeper which caused the original problem. The penalty area has long since become a 'no-go' area when the goalkeeper is in possession.

Off the field, the implementation of the Taylor Report will cost top clubs millions of pounds as they shrink to all-seater capacities by 1994–95. They will claim increased prices of admission are necessary for this reason and that the income from television is insufficient to cover all outgoing costs. But the fans will see it in a different light.

The game is again at the crossroads and it will be a testing time for the FA Premier League. The new body and the Football League must bury their differences and act as neighbours, home and away, with both subject to paying the bill, as the cost of policing the game soars. While arrests at grounds were down last season for the third year in a row, with arrests and ejections at 8556 compared with 9190 the season before, the figures do not represent statistics outside stadia and for those who travel to matches by public transport, there remain too many instances of misbehaviour. Moreover that underlying current of unpleasantness which erupted in Sweden during the European Championship made it obvious that hooliganism is being contained over here, not eradicated. England fans who cause trouble abroad also watch games in England. Hosting the 1996 tournament will be an expensive experience as the FA has already noted.

Alas, there are now so many people in authority who have no personal experience of watching large scale, non-policed football in a less enlightened age, they accept the present, citing it as society's curse and wrongly assuming football has always had a problem of spectator indiscipline on a scale comparable with recent decades. Life's hour glass cannot be upturned, but the encouragement of family participation and the community in football has to be the way forward – if the price is right.

ROTHMANS FOOTBALL AWARDS

Rothmans Football Awards are presented to clubs and players who have achieved success and enriched the game during the past season. They also reveal the wide ranging nature of the book itself.

BURNLEY FOOTBALL CLUB won the championship of the Fourth Division in 1991–92 and erased the memory of how near they came to losing their Football League status in 1987. It was only on the last day of that season that they managed to beat Leyton Orient and stay in Division Four. From that moment interest in the club has grown and support at home and away has been the envy of many clubs in higher divisions. This befits a club which is proud to have been one of the founder members of the Football League in 1888 and now intends to further improve its standing. The basis for optimism is in place.

COLCHESTER UNITED FOOTBALL CLUB achieved a double last season, winning the GM Vauxhall Conference to regain its position in the Football League and taking the FA Trophy. They return to the League fold after two years absence. The club made its name as FA Cup giant-killers in the years immediately after the Second World War and entered the old Third Division (South) in 1950. Cup fighting traditions remained and reached a peak in 1971 when they defeated Leeds United 3-2 in a fifth round FA Cup tie at Layer Road. Last season they were unbeaten in their last 12 League games.

STEVE McMANAMAN was born in Liverpool and raised as an Evertonian. But he is now an established member of Liverpool Football Club and gave a stunning second-half performance on the flanks in the 1992 FA Cup Final. He toyed with, then tortured the Sunderland defence with his confident running, close control and natural swerve. All this at the age of 20. He had the unusual experience of making as many England Under-21 appearances in his first season as he achieved in the Football League – just two in 1990–91. A versatile attacker he can play on either flank or in the middle.

GORDON STRACHAN is no stranger to winning awards but his leadership by example enabled Leeds United to win the Football League championship in 1991–92. At the age of 35 he was an inspirational captain displaying the stamina and enthusiasm of a younger man. This was achieved despite a niggling back injury which forced him out of Scotland's European Championship final team in Sweden. He has won Player of the Year awards on either side of the border in a career with Dundee, Aberdeen, Manchester United and Leeds. Last season provided another milestone for him.

KAREN WALKER of England was outstanding in women's football last season for the highly successful Doncaster Belles. She finished as leading scorer in the National League with 36 goals and her feat of scoring a hat-trick or more in every round of the cup may not be repeated by anyone who follows her in the future. Her total of cup goals reached 22 and she failed to score in only one game in 1991–92. The Belles had such appeal that they remained unbeaten in both senior competitions, in what was the inaugural season for a national league.

IAN WRIGHT was the leading scorer in Football League matches in 1991–92 with 29 goals, five of which were scored while with Crystal Palace, the remaining 24 coming from his efforts for Arsenal. He joined the Highbury club in September for a fee of £2.5 million and the move enhanced his already strong reputation as a sharp, incisive marksman. His haul included four against Everton and three against Southampton. He considered Arsenal to be the most effective First Division team in the last three months of the season and much credit must go to the England striker for their marked improvement during this period.

16 The 22 First Division clubs hand in their resignations to the Football League, which is preparing to start the new season virtually leaderless and without a management committee.
17 The opening of the Football League season is overshadowed by the behind-the-scenes wrangling, as Sunderland chairman Bob Murray circulates all League clubs with unconvincing plans to isolate the proposed Premier League members, while the FA threaten to charge players who, backed by the PFA, refuse mandatory drug tests. Action on the field produces one more goal than last season's start, thanks largely to Crewe's 7-4 win at newcomers Barnet. Seven players are sent off.
18 Bob Murray keeps on the warpath, promising to back any strike called by the PFA over the proposed Premier League. Scottish FA secretary Jim Farry blames player ignorance of the new laws for the spate of sendings-off (16) in the first week of their season.
19 The Football League farce continues . . . assistant secretary Andy Williamson welcomes growing support for Sunderland's plans to isolate the breakaway clubs, but League commercial director Trevor Phillips warns the militant Second Division clubs that they would face financial ruin.

In the Italian Cup, David Platt marks his debut for Bari by missing a penalty in their embarrassing, goalless home draw with Third Division Empoli.
22 The Football League confirms that Sunderland's proposal to halt relegation and promotion from and to the new Premier League cannot begin this season. Charlton learn that The Valley will not now be ready until the New Year and face League action.

24 After three games, Manchester City are the only First Division club with a 100 per cent record. Barnet chalk up their first ever win in the Football League with a 1-0 victory at Mansfield. Aberdeen and Hearts maintain their 100 per cent record in Scotland after four matches.
26 Compulsory drug testing is suspended after a clear-the-air meeting between the FA, PFA and the Association of Managers and Secretaries.
27 Arsenal's first win of the season, 2-0 over Luton, is marred by Anders Limpar's dismissal.

REVIEW OF THE SEASON

With seven days remaining in the Football League season, there was every prospect of a photo-finish to the championship involving Leeds United and Manchester United; the possibility of the strongly-running Sheffield Wednesday coming through if the two pacesetters stumbled, had just eased. A Mark Bright goal two minutes from the end of Crystal Palace's game with Wednesday for a 1-1 draw, had left the field open to the other two clubs.

Alas, someone forgot to follow the script. Manchester United duly lost 2-0 at Liverpool after Leeds had won a midday comedy of derby errors with Sheffield United, more in keeping with 'It's a Knockout' than a championship clincher.

Those who criticised the standard of play in what was the last Football League championship – as we have come to know it in over 100 years – were given ample scope for argument by this match. Alan Cork scrambled a goal for the Blades in the 28th minute, but Leeds equalised when Gary Speed's shot bounced off Rodney Wallace, who knew nothing about what had happened. That was a minute before half-time and in the 64th minute Jon Newsome put Leeds ahead from a diving header from Gary McAllister's corner, finishing up off the pitch as the ball crossed the line. But four minutes later Sheffield were level when Lee Chapman, in his own penalty area, contrived to score an own goal from John Pemberton's low shot. The pantomime season having arrived early, closed in the 77th minute when Brian Gayle, under pressure, headed the ball over the head of injured goalkeeper Mel Rees, who had hobbled out to the edge of the penalty area. Leeds won 3-2.

To judge Leeds' achievement in winning their first title since 1974 on this performace would be grossly unfair. They proved themselves to be the more consistent team, though it was agreed Manchester United snatched runner-up position from the mouth of the champions. All this despite the omens having been firmly on their side. Unbeaten until losing 3-2 at Sheffield Wednesday on October 26 it proved to be unlucky 13 for United. But they were the last Football League club to lose in 1991–92 and the previous two occasions which had seen them in a similar position, had ended happily enough. In 1974–75 after nine unbeaten games at the start, they went on to win the Second Division title and in 1956–57 they survived a dozen without loss and took the League championship itself.

Leeds had previously won the title in 1974 in some style. Twenty-nine games undefeated. This time apart from a few odd lapses, they gave little away at the back. John Lukic in goal was as cool as ever, Mel Sterland forceful at right-back, Chris Fairclough and Chris Whyte, resolute and tough in the middle, Tony Dorigo, signed from Chelsea, ever ready to show his pace on the left flank. The combative David Batty supplied the threat in midfield, McAllister flitted around, threading menace when it was least expected, while Speed operated with alacrity on the wing or in midfield. Gordon Strachan, 35, was an inspirational captain and revealed a level of stamina inconsistent with his age. Up front, that much travelled target man Chapman accumulated a tidy crop of goals while Wallace provided the freer, foraging role around him.

At the helm was the dour, determined manager Howard Wilkinson, not given to reckless conversation, words without meaning or wandering thought processes. His single-minded approach was amply rewarded. Wilkinson's most frivolous signing came late on when he took Eric Cantona, virtually sight unseen after a trial at Sheffield Wednesday. The controversial Frenchman was an instant hit with the players and supporters alike. Though used chiefly as a substitute, he possessed the confidence and ability to accelerate past opponents with finesse. Moreover he made things happen. On April 11 against Chelsea, he took the ball on his chest, controlled it superbly, outwitted two defenders and rifled home from an acute angle for a goal which had even Wilkinson going misty-eyed. Here the manager revealed his true belief: it's better to win the title well, but it's better to win it than not at all.

While one side of the Pennines was celebrating, the other was in mourning for yet another Manchester United near-achievement in the championship. Alex Ferguson saw United's iron grip slip. From September 7 until losing 1-0 at rock-bottom West Ham on April 22, the destiny of the title remained in their grasp. Hopes of a double having wrested the Rumbelows Cup, faded in disappointment.

Arsenal surrendered their champions crown early on, but there was no doubt that had they been able to knuckle down to matters before going out of the FA Cup at Wrexham on January 4, their challenge might have been more certain. As it was, they lost just one League game afterwards. Meanwhile Liverpool had problems on the field and off it. Injuries deprived the club of players of the calibre of John Barnes, Ian Rush and Ronnie Whelan for long periods. Barnes scored only one League goal, Rush three, including his first ever over Manchester United. Manager Graeme Souness underwent successful heart surgery and Ronnie Moran took over in his absence. A 4-0 defeat at Arsenal was their heaviest reverse for nine years. Consolation came in the FA Cup success.

Sandwiched between Arsenal and Liverpool came Manchester City who beat Leeds 4-0 as late on as April 4, but were erratic and had several poor spells. Lying sixth on January 1 after losing 2-1 at Norwich, Aston Villa scored only one goal in the next 11 games but still finished seventh. Nottingham Forest, ever capable of Brian Clough's brand of stylish attacking football, twice beat Manchester United, but looked distinctly ordinary at others. They did win the ZDS Cup. Dave Bassett's famous escape plans were formulated earlier for Sheffield United, starting in earnest with a 4-2 win at Southampton on January 11, but Crystal Palace never recovered from the loss of Ian Wright, transferred to Arsenal, finding goals increasingly elusive.

Queen's Park Rangers reserved their best performance for New Year's Day, giving Manchester United a 4-1 drubbing at Old Trafford in a run of 11 without defeat. They also beat Leeds 4-1 on March 11. Everton, seventh on March 14, slipped to 12th but Wimbledon survived again without undue problems, though it requried a change of managership at one stage. Chelsea won 2-1 at Liverpool on February 1 to go sixth, but fell away.

Gary Lineker contributed almost half of Tottenham Hotspur's total of goals – 28 of 58 – despite missing seven games. Spurs home record was the worst in the club's history and they lost 11 times at White Hart Lane. A defence-backed recovery helped Southampton, but having conceded only six goals in the previous 15 games, they let in five in a second-half at Arsenal in the last game. Only seven different players scored their League goals. For Oldham, it was an undistinguised season and Norwich reserved their best performances for the FA Cup. Coventry were sixth on October 26 but scored only once in the last seven games and failed to score at all in 21. They did manage two more points than relegated Luton, who failed to win away and also found difficulty in scoring goals.

After some early encouragement, Notts County were never out of the bottom two from March and West Ham were in trouble after losing 3-0 at Notts County on December 28 and a 4-0 win over Norwich on April 11 proved a false dawn.

In the Second Division, Ipswich won the championship, ironically under former Hammers boss John Lyall. Yet after a confident opening they endured eight games without a win including three successive defeats. Nerves set in near the end, but they overcame them. In contrast, Middlesbrough had a run of eight without loss after an indifferent start, but held on to top spot despite the odd lapse until losing 2-1 at Barnsley on November 5. With games in hand they won five of their last six fixtures. Derby surged unbeaten in the last eight to finish third, but Leicester, after appearing to time their thrust to perfection lost the last two matches. Cambridge United's widely criticised Route One approach still helped to put them on top after a 2-1 win at Ipswich on November 9. Injuries hindered them but so did inconsistency.

Blackburn's traditional second half of the season slump produced six successive defeats but after a 2-2 draw at Tranmere, Kenny Dalglish's expensive outfit edged back into the play-offs. However Charlton spoiled a run of ten without defeat by losing their last two and after hovering on the brink of the play-offs themselves, Swindon transferred Duncan Shearer to Blackburn in March and never scored more than one goal in a game afterwards.

Portsmouth chased promotion and a Wembley Cup Final but lost out both times. Their reward was a well merited Fair Play Award. Watford's season was salvaged with only one defeat in the last 13 and though Wolves were 21st on November 23 they did improve. An early kick-off had Southend top for a couple of hours on February 1, but they became unsettled after manger David Webb announced his intention to leave in the summer. Brett Angell scored in seven successive games for them.

Bristol Rovers were as low as 21st themselves on the turn of the year, but gained from two stout performances against Liverpool in the FA Cup. Despite 40 League and Cup goals from ex-Merseyside favourite John Aldridge, Tranmere could only manage 14th place and Millwall were never higher than 11th. Barnsley, never in the top half, still managed a win over Ipswich and Bristol City turned the corner with the arrival of Andy Cole on loan from Arsenal and Leroy Rosenior from West Ham. In the last ten games they contributed 13 of 17 goals scored.

Sunderland's FA Cup run threatened their First Division status, but they managed to pick up sufficient points including a 3-0 win over Ipswich. Grimsby were never far from the danger zone and the last 14 games yielded only seven goals. Kevin Keegan's stint in charge of Newcastle started in 23rd place with a 3-0 win over Bristol City, but five successive defeats made it appear ominous for a time. Oxford looked a good tip for relegation until beating Swindon 5-3 on March 7, yet not even Peter Shilton could save Plymouth and Brighton were never out of the bottom five from December. Port Vale finished at the foot after a disastrous run of 17 without a win and a 2-0 win over Blackburn was merely a momentary relief.

Brentford emerged as Third Division champions despite an average spell with which to begin. They were top on October 5, suffered four consecutive defeats in March but eneded with six successive wins. Birmingham, with problems in several positions necessitating the use of 33 different players including five goalkeepers, still stabilized at the right moment. Top scorer Nigel Gleghorn was the only ever present player. Huddersfield made the play-offs after remaining unbeaten in the last eight, scoring 17 and conceding just two goals. Stoke headed the division for nearly two months but then one point from a possible nine cost them dearly. They did win the Autoglass Trophy over Stockport who scored freely at times but found the net in only two of their last six matches. The second of these brought a 2-0 win over Birmingham on the last day.

Peterborough lost 3-0 at Stockport on December 14 and went 15 without defeat to mid-March but they had no success in the next five, recovering only to lose the last game 1-0 to Brentford. West Bromwich beat Birmingham 3-0 on February 8 to lead the others, then collapsed, winning only four more games. They used 34 players. Middle of the table Bournemouth produced a belated effort which was not sustained and Fulham's defence had its moments, one of six games without conceding a goal. Leyton Orient's home record survived until February 8 but three more defeats followed at Brisbane Road. Hartlepool had their highest placing in Division Three at 11th and it might have been better but for a spell of only two goals in seven outings. Reading's attack failed into April with no goals in five consecutive games before scoring six against Torquay, but several youngsters were given senior opportunities at Elm Park. The arrival of Andy Walker from Celtic promised better things for Bolton and he responded with 15 of the 26 goals scored. But the side entered the last match with a run of ten without a win.

Hull's two faces were shown by 11 games and no win to February 1, then only one reverse in 12. The last four games were won without losing a goal. After struggling all season, Wigan lost just two of the last 11 games while Bradford were 21st in the middle of January before a nine-game sequence around March improved matters. Preston were one place worse off on March 14 after losing 3-0 at home to Chester, but pulled their game together and Chester themselves escaped after a run of 12 without a win at one time. Swansea were unable to win any of their last 11 and Exeter, who used 35 players, slid with just one point from the last possible 24 but remained in the division. Bury had a wretched second half of the season and went down with Shrewsbury, who suffered a club record 17 games without a win, Torquay whose highlight was two successive 1-0 wins and Darlington, never off the bottom from mid-February.

In Division Four on December 21, Burnley beat ill-fated Aldershot 2-1 at the Recreation Ground to go top and spurred on by their formidable support at home and away, never suffered two consecutive defeats afterwards and were worthy champions. Rotherham finished runners-up showing consistent form all season, but perhaps more of it after the turn of the year. Mansfield were never lower than fourth at any one time and Blackpool made the play-offs a point below the Stags. Dave Bamber again took the Seasiders scoring honours but the side slipped from top to fourth despite a run of 14 without defeat. Scunthorpe beat Blackpool 2-1 on December 28 but failed to capitalize on it, though they had a late run dropping only two out of 24 points. Crewe drew 1-1 at Burnley on September 7 to lead the field, but often found scoring goals a problem.

Freescoring newcomers Barnet were briefly top on November 9 but were let down by poor away form, though oddly enough won 4-1 at York on the last day to secure a play-off berth. Rochdale could have overhauled Barnet by beating Burnley on May 5, but lost 3-0, three successive defeats costing them a real chance in April. Chris Pike and Carl Dale scored 44 goals between them for Cardiff but the team still finished ninth. Fathoming out Lincoln was difficult: they scored only 19 goals in the first 26 matches, hit four and five in the next two and let in just a couple in the last eight.

Gillingham's consistency was simply one of being an average team in the middle of the table and Scarborough, who used 32 players, seemed to be on the threshold of improvement on January 4 after a 2-0 win at Rotherham. Alas the weather hit them badly and it was a month before they played again only to lose 5-1 at Barnet. Chesterfield suffered a goal famine until Steve Norris arrived from Halifax and Wrexham's best form in the League coincided with their sensational cup win over Arsenal. Walsall, who once ousted the Gunners from the same competition in 1933, never shook off a middle of the table look.

Northampton had a promising run of ten games without defeat, but pressing financial worries forced them to sell Tony Adcock and Bobby Barnes to Peterborough and Hereford's season tailed off after they had been as high as fourth in early November. Maidstone, with their own fiscal failings, rallied briefly before scoring only three times in the last eight games. Nine games without a win led York to 19th. Halifax were unable to score in exactly half of their games to illustrate their plight but Doncaster escaped bottom place even though they went 17 games without a win at one period. They left the cellar to Carlisle who had won 3-0 at Doncaster on the first day of the season. Aldershot bowed out in March, the fans finding some money for players who were not being paid, yet both bodies apparently willing to stagger on even longer in such extraordinary circumstances.

INTRODUCTION TO THE CLUB SECTION

The full page team photographs which appear on the first of each club's six pages in this section of the yearbook were taken at the beginning of the 1991–92 season, and therefore relate to the season covered by this edition's statistics.

The third and fourth pages of each club's section give a complete record of the League season for the club concerned, including date, venue, opponents, result, half-time score, League position, goalscorers, attendance and complete line-ups, including substitutes where used, for every League game in the 1991–92 season. These two pages also include consolidated lists of goalscorers for the club in League, Rumbelows Cup and FA Cup matches and a summary of results in the two main domestic cups. The full League history of the club, a complete list of major honours won and best placings achieved, and a note of the team's first and second choice colours appears on the second page of this section. The colours are checked with the clubs, but please note that second choice colours may vary during the season.

Note also that the League position shown after each League result is recalculated as at every Saturday night plus full holiday programmes, but the position after mid-week fixtures will not normally be updated. Please be advised that the attendance figures quoted for each League game are those which appeared in the Press at the time, whereas the attendance statistics published on pages 618 and 619 are those issued officially by the Football League after the season has been completed. However, the figures for each League game are those used by the Football League in its weekly bulletin, in conjunction with the Sunday Telegraph and Jack Rollin's column in that newspaper.

On the fourth page of each club's section, the total League appearances for the season are listed at the foot of each player's column. Substitutes are inserted as numbers 12 and 14 where they actually came on to play. The players taken off are respectively given an asterisk (*) and a dagger (†). But in order to give the chart a uniform appearance, where only one substitute has played the number 12 will have been used.

In the totals at the foot of each column, substitute appearances are listed separately below the '+' sign, but have been amalgamated in the totals which feature in the player's historical section on the final page for each club. Thus these appearances include those as substitute.

The final pages for each club list all the players included on the Football League's 'Retained' list, which is published at the end of May. Here you will find each player's height and weight, where known, plus birthplace, birthdate and source, together with total League appearances and goals for each club he has represented. Full names of all other players retained including trainees, non-contract players and schoolboys are also given. In addition more club information is added on these pages including items of interest from the club's history and a list of previous managers.

No appearances or goals are credited in matches against Aldershot in the Fourth Division, but those goals scored in the various cup competitions are included. Aldershot's record is shown up to the time they were forced to withdraw, but the appearances and goals for their players are not shown in the accumulated version.

Any transfers which take place between the publication of the League's Retained list and this book going to press will be included in the transfer section between pages 607 and 614, but the player's details will remain under the club which retained him at the end of the season. An asterisk * by a player's name on the fifth and sixth pages means that he was given a free transfer at the end of the 1991–92 season, a dagger † against a name means that he is a non-contract player, and a double dagger ‡ indicates that the player's registration was cancelled during the season. An § indicates either a Trainee or an Associated Schoolboy who has made Football League appearances.

The play-offs in the Football League are listed separately on pages 592 and 593. Appearances made by players in these play-offs will not be included in their career totals.

Four pages have been included for Colchester United, the 93rd club in the Football League.

Editor's note: In the Scottish League, substitutes where used are listed as 12 and 14. The second player to be taken off is also picked out with a dagger.

ALDERSHOT

Foundation: It was through the initiative of Councillor Jack White, a local newsagent who immediately captured the interest of the Town Clerk D. Llewellyn Griffiths, that Aldershot Town was formed in 1926. Having established a limited liability company under the chairmanship of Norman Clinton, an Aldershot resident and chairman of the Hampshire County FA they rented the Recreation Ground from the Aldershot Borough Council.

First Football League game: 27 August, 1932, Division 3(S), v Southend U (h) L 1-2 – Robb; Wade, McDougall; Lawson, Spence, Middleton; Proud, White, Gamble, Douglas, Fishlock (1).

Did you know: Aldershot's record run of scoring in consecutive League games is 31 from 1 April 1961 to 25 November 1961 inclusive. This included a 2-0 win over Accrington Stanley which was subsequently deleted when that club resigned from the League.

ARSENAL

Foundation: Formed by workers at the Royal Arsenal, Woolwich in 1886 they began as Dial Square (name of one of the workshops) and included two former Nottingham Forest players Fred Beardsley and Morris Bates. Beardsley wrote to his old club seeking help and they provided the new club with a full set of red jerseys and a ball. The club became known as the "Woolwich Reds" although their official title soon after formation was Woolwich Arsenal.

First Football League game: 2 September, 1893, Division 2, v Newcastle U (h) D 2-2 – Williams; Powell, Jeffrey; Devine, Buist, Howat; Gemmell, Henderson, Shaw (1), Elliott (1), Booth.

Did you know: Considering their remarkable record of success, it may be surprising to note that the only season in which they were undefeated at home before the double-winning campaign of 1970–71 was 1903–04 – the first time they won promotion from Division 2.

ASTON VILLA

Foundation: Cricketing enthusiasts of Villa Cross Wesleyan Chapel, Aston, Birmingham decided to form a football club during the winter of 1873–74. Football clubs were few and far between in the Birmingham area and in their first game against Aston Brook St. Mary's Rugby team they played one half rugby and the other soccer. In 1876 they were joined by a Scottish soccer enthusiast George Ramsay who was immediately appointed captain and went on to lead Aston Villa from obscurity to one of the country's top clubs in a period of less than 10 years.

First Football League game: 8 September, 1888, Football League, v Wolverhampton W, (a) D 1-1 – Warner; Cox, Coulton; Yates, H. Devey, Dawson; A. Brown, Green (1), Allen, Garvey, Hodgetts.

Did you know: The coal mines have provided many top-class footballers and in 1893 Aston Villa's secretary, Fred Rinder, actually went down the pit at Hednesford to clinch the signing of outside-left Steve Smith – a star of the side that won the League Championship four times in five years at the end of the last century.

BARNSLEY

Foundation: Many clubs owe their inception to the church and Barnsley are among them, for they were formed in 1887 by the Rev. T. T. Preedy, curate of Barnsley St. Peter's and went under that name until a year after being admitted to the Second Division of the Football League in 1898.

First Football League game: 1 September, 1898, Division 2, v Lincoln C (a) L 0-1 – Fawcett; McArtney, Nixon; King, Burleigh, Porteous; Davis, Lees, Murray, McCullough, McGee.

Did you know: In 1932–33 Barnsley signed an inside-forward from West Stanley named Jackie Smith who was barely 5ft 3in tall and nicknamed "Peter Pan" or "Tiny". Despite his lack of height he scored 12 goals in each of his two seasons with the club, many with his head.

BIRMINGHAM CITY

Foundation: In 1875 cricketing enthusiasts who were largely members of Trinity Church, Bordesley, determined to continue their sporting relationships throughout the year by forming a football club which they called Small Heath Alliance. For their earliest games played on waste land in Arthur Street, the team included three Edden brothers and two James brothers.

First Football League game: 3 September, 1892, Division 2, v Burslem Port Vale (h) W 5-1 – Charsley; Bayley, Speller; Ollis, Jenkyns, Devey; Hallam (1), Edwards (1), Short (1), Wheldon (2), Hands.

Did you know: In the FA Cup third round in January 1928 at St Andrews, non-league Peterborough & Fletton United were leading 3-1 at the interval but Birmingham's ace goalscorer Joe Bradford scored a winning hat-trick in the second half.

BLACKBURN ROVERS

Foundation: It was in 1875 that some Public School old boys called a meeting at which the Blackburn Rovers club was formed and the colours blue and white adopted. The leading light was John Lewis, later to become a founder of the Lancashire FA, a famous referee who was in charge of two FA Cup Finals, and a vice-president of both the FA and the Football League.

First Football League game: 15 September, 1888, Football League, v Accrington (h) D 5-5 – Arthur; Beverley, James Southworth; Douglas, Almond, Forrest; Beresford (1), Walton, John Southworth (1), Fecitt (1), Townley (2).

Did you know: Because of a clash of colours in the 1890 FA Cup Final with Sheffield Wednesday, Rovers played in white evening dress shirts which they bought after their arrival in London.

BOLTON WANDERERS

Foundation: In 1874 boys of Christ Church Sunday School, Blackburn Street, led by their master Thomas Ogden, established a football club which went under the name of the school and whose president was Vicar of Christ Church. Membership was 6d (2cp). When their president began to lay down too many rules about the use of church premises, the club broke away and formed Bolton Wanderers in 1877, holding their earliest meetings at the Gladstone Hotel.

First Football League game: 8 September, 1888, Football League, v Derby C (h), L 3-6 – Harrison; Robinson, Mitchell; Roberts, Weir, Bullough, Davenport (2), Milne, Coupar, Barbour, Brogan (1).

AFC BOURNEMOUTH

Foundation: There was a Bournemouth FC as early as 1875, but the present club arose out of the remnants of the Boscombe St John's club (formed 1890). The meeting at which Boscombe FC came into being was held at a house in Gladstone Road in 1899. They began by playing in the Boscombe and District Junior League.

First Football League game: 25 August, 1923, Division 3(S), v Swindon T (a), L 1-3 – Heron; Wingham, Lamb; Butt, C. Smith, Voisey; Miller, Lister (1), Davey, Simpson, Robinson.

Did you know: One of Bournemouth's most remarkable away victories was at Merthyr in Division 3 (S) on 5 March 1927. The score was 4-4 with 20 minutes remaining, Jack Phillips having scored all Merthyr's goals. But with Bournemouth centre-forward Ronnie Eyre completing his hat-trick, Bournemouth ran out 6-4 winners.

BRADFORD CITY

Foundation: Bradford was a rugby stronghold around the turn of the century but after Manningham RFC held an archery contest to help them out of financial difficulties in 1903, they were persuaded to give up the handling code and turn to soccer. So they formed Bradford City and continued at Valley Parade. Recognising this as an opportunity of spreading the dribbling code in this part of Yorkshire, the Football League immediately accepted the new club's first application for membership of the Second Division.

First Football League game: 1 September, 1903, Division 2, v Grimsby T (a), L 0-2 – Seymour; Wilson, Halliday; Robinson, Millar, Farnall; Guy, Beckram, Forrest, McMillan, Graham.

Did you know: In the first half of their record-breaking goalscoring season of 1928–29, City tried six different centre-forwards before signing Bert Whitehurst from Liverpool in February. He then went on to score 24 goals in the last 15 games, four more than all the others had scored in the first 27 of the season.

BRIGHTON & HOVE ALBION

Foundation: After barely two seasons in existence, a professional club named Brighton United, consisting mostly of Scotsmen, was forced to disband in 1900. The club's manager John Jackson determined to keep the professional game alive in the town and initiated the movement which led to the formation of Brighton & Hove Rangers that same year.

First Football League game: 28 August, 1920, Division 3, v Southend U (a), L 0-2 – Hayes; Woodhouse, Little; Hall, Comber, Bentley; Longstaff, Ritchie, Doran, Rodgerson, March.

Did you know: In 1921–22 Brighton's Irish international Jack Doran scored hat-tricks away and at home to Exeter City on successive Wednesdays with Brighton winning 3-0 and 3-1. These were the club's first hat-tricks in the League.

BRISTOL CITY

Foundation: The name Bristol City came into being in 1897 when the Bristol South End club, formed three years earlier, decided to adopt professionalism and apply for admission to the Southern League after competing in the Western League. The historic meeting was held at The Albert Hall, Bedminster. Bristol City employed Sam Hollis from Woolwich Arsenal as manager and gave him £40 to buy players. In 1901 they merged with Bedminster, another leading Bristol club.

First Football League game: 7 September, 1901, Division 2, v Blackpool (a) W 2-0 – Moles; Tuft, Davies; Jones, McLean, Chambers; Bradbury, Connor, Boucher, O'Brien (2), Flynn.

Did you know: When City were first promoted from the Second Division in 1905–06, it was the only campaign in which as many as three of their players scored 20 or more League goals in a season – William Maxwell 25, Walter Bennett and Sammy Gilligan 20 each.

BRISTOL ROVERS

Foundation: Bristol Rovers were formed at a meeting in Stapleton Road, Eastville, in 1883. However, they first went under the name of the Black Arabs (wearing black shirts). Changing their name to Eastville Rovers in their second season, they won the Gloucestershire Senior Cup in 1888–89. Original members of the Bristol & District League in 1892, this eventually became the Western League and Eastville Rovers adopted professionalism in 1897.

First Football League game: 28 August, 1920, Division 3, v Millwall (a) L 0-2 – Stansfield; Bethune, Panes; Boxley, Kenny, Steele; Chance, Bird, Sims, Bell, Palmer.

Did you know: When drawn away to RA Portsmouth in the FA Cup in November 1896, Bristol Rovers decided that their chances were so poor that they scratched from the competition. RA Portsmouth were FA Amateur Cup finalists that year and one of the strongest sides in the south of England.

BURNLEY

Foundation: The majority of those responsible for the formation of the Burnley club in 1881 were from the defunct rugby club Burnley Rovers. Indeed, they continued to play rugby for a year before changing to soccer and dropping "Rovers" from their name. The changes were decided at a meeting held in May 1882 at the Bull Hotel.

First Football League game: 8 September, 1888, Football League, v PNE (a), L 2-5 – Smith; Lang, Bury, Abrams, Friel, Keenan, Brady, Tait, Poland (1), Gallocher (1), Yates.

Did you know: In winning promotion to the First Division in 1972–73, Burnley called on only 17 players, a club record. No less than six were ever-present – Alan Stevenson, Keith Newton, Colin Waldron, Jimmy Thomson, Frank Casper and Leighton James.

CARDIFF CITY

Foundation: Credit for the establishment of a first class professional football club in such a rugby stronghold as Cardiff, is due to members of the Riverside club formed in 1899 out of a cricket club of that name. Cardiff became a city in 1905 and in 1908 the local FA granted Riverside permission to call themselves Cardiff City.

First Football League game: 28 August, 1920, Division 2, v Stockport C (a) W 5-2 – Kneeshaw; Brittain, Leyton; Keenor (1), Smith, Hardy; Grimshaw (1), Gill (2), Cashmore, West, Evans (1).

Did you know: Welsh international Billy Rees scored most goals for Cardiff City in senior World War Two games – a total of 74 including 33 in 1944–45. After the war he helped City into the Second Division before going to Spurs.

CHARLTON ATHLETIC

Foundation: Although formed in 1905 by members of such clubs as East Street Mission, Blundell Mission, and Charlton Reds, Charlton Athletic did not really make their presence felt until adopting professionalism and joining the Southern League in 1920. Before that, they had played in such competitions as the Lewisham, Southern Suburban and London Leagues.

First Football League game: 27 August, 1921, Division 3 (S), v Exeter C (h) W 1-0 – Hughes; Mitchell, Goodman; Dowling (1), Hampson, Dunn; Castle, Bailey, Halse, Green, Wilson.

Did you know: As Football League championship runners-up, Charlton were invited to replace Italy in the game against France in Paris and won 5-2. This was in April 1937.

CHELSEA

Foundation: Chelsea may never have existed but for the fact that Fulham rejected an offer to rent the Stamford Bridge ground from Mr. H. A. Mears who had owned it since 1904. Fortunately he was determined to develop it as a football stadium rather than sell it to the Great Western Railway and got together with Frederick Parker, who persuaded Mears of the financial advantages of developing a major sporting venue. Chelsea FC was formed in 1905, and when admission to the Southern League was denied, they immediately gained admission to the Second Division of the Football League.

First Football League game: 2 September, 1905, Division 2, v Stockport C (a) L 0-1 – Foulke; Mackie, McEwan; Key, Harris, Miller; Moran, J. T. Robertson, Copeland, Windridge, Kirwan.

Did you know: Chelsea was the first Football League club to produce a 16-page magazine-type programme selling at 6d (2½p) in December 1948. In February 1966 they were also the first club to publish full-colour pictures in the programme. This was for their game with AC Milan.

CHESTER CITY

Foundation: All students of soccer history have read about the medieval games of football in Chester, but the present club was not formed until 1884 through the amalgamation of King's School Old Boys with Chester Rovers. For many years Chester were overshadowed in Cheshire by Northwich Victoria and Crewe Alexandra who had both won the Senior Cup several times before Chester's first success in 1894–95.

First Football League game: 2 September, 1931, Division 3 (N), v Wrexham (a) D 1-1 – Johnson; Herod, Jones; Keeley, Skitt, Reilly; Thompson, Ranson, Jennings (1), Cresswell, Hedley.

Did you know: In 1933–34 Chester figured in one of the most remarkable turnabouts in Football League history. In November they beat Rochdale 7-1 at home, but in March they lost 6-0 away to the same club.

CHESTERFIELD

Foundation: Chesterfield are fourth only to Stoke, Notts County and Nottingham Forest in age for they can trace their existence as far back as 1866, although it is fair to say that they were somewhat casual in the first few years of their history playing only a few friendlies a year. However, their rules of 1871 are still in existence showing an annual membership of 2s (10p), but it was not until 1891 that they won a trophy (the Barnes Cup) and followed this a year later by winning the Sheffield Cup, Barnes Cup and the Derbyshire Junior Cup.

First Football League game: 2 September, 1899, Division 2, v Sheffield W (a) L 1-5 – Hancock; Pilgrim, Fletcher; Ballantyne, Bell, Downie; Morley, Thacker, Gooing, Munday (1), Geary.

Did you know: Six different goalscorers for the same side in a Football League game is sufficiently rare to be worthy of special mention and Chesterfield had this number on their score sheet when they beat Stockport County 8-1 in the Second Division in April 1902. The names included an 'own goal' and Herbert Munday with a hat-trick.

COLCHESTER UNITED

Foundation: Colchester United was formed in 1937 when a number of enthusiasts of the much older Colchester Town club decided to establish a professional concern as a limited liability company. The new club continued at Layer Road which had been the amateur club's home since 1909.

First Football League game: 19 August, 1950. Division 3 (S), v Gillingham (a) D 0-0 – Wright; Kettle, Allen; Bearryman, Stewart, Elder; Jones, Curry, Turner, McKim, Church.

Did you know: After beating Accrington Stanley 3-2 on 2 September 1961 and 4-0 on 13 January 1962, the Lancashire club subsequently withdrew from the League. Colchester lost their place on top of Division 4 and never regained it, though they were promoted.

CREWE ALEXANDRA

Foundation: Crewe Alexandra played cricket and probably rugby before they decided to form a football club in 1877. Whether they took the name "Alexandra" from a pub where they held their meetings, or whether it was after Princess Alexandra, is a matter of conjecture. Crewe's first trophy was the Crewe and District Cup in 1887 and it is worth noting that they reached the semi-finals of the FA Cup the following year.

First Football League game: 3 September, 1892, Division 2, v Burton Swifts (a) L 1-7 – Hickton; Moore, Cope; Linnell, Johnson, Osborne; Bennett, Pearson (1), Bailey, Barnett, Roberts.

Did you know: Crewe were the last amateur side to reach the semi-finals of the FA Cup when they were beaten 4-0 by Preston North End in February 1888.

CRYSTAL PALACE

Foundation: There was a Crystal Palace club as early as 1861 but the present organisation was born in 1905 after the formation of a club by the company that controlled the Crystal Palace (the building that is), had been rejected by the FA who did not like the idea of the Cup Final hosts running their own club. A separate company had to be formed and they had their home on the old Cup Final ground until 1915.

First Football League game: 28 August, 1920, Division 3, v Merthyr T (a) L 1-2 – Alderson; Little, Rhodes; McCracken, Jones, Feebury; Bateman, Conner, Smith, Milligan (1), Whibley.

Did you know: Crystal Palace played three goalless draws with First Division Notts County in the FA Cup second round in 1923–24 before winning 2-1 at Villa Park.

DARLINGTON

Foundation: A football club was formed in Darlington as early as 1861 but the present club began in 1883 and reached the final of the Durham Senior Cup in their first season, losing to Sunderland in a replay after complaining that they had suffered from intimidation in the first. The following season Darlington won this trophy and for many years were one of the leading amateur clubs in their area.

First Football League game: 27 August, 1921, Division 3 (N), v Halifax T (h) W 2-0 – Ward; Greaves, Barbour; Dickson (1), Sutcliffe, Malcolm; Dolphin, Hooper (1), Edmunds, Wolstenholme, Winship.

Did you know: Famous winger Mark Hooper and his brother Bill partnered each other in many League games for Darlington, but only once did they both score. That was in a 4-0 win over Rotherham County on 11 October 1924 in Division 3 (N).

DERBY COUNTY

Foundation: Derby County was formed by members of the Derbyshire County Cricket Club in 1884, when football was booming in the area and the cricketers thought that a football club would help boost finances for the summer game. To begin with, they sported the cricket club's colours of amber, chocolate and pale blue, and went into the game at the top immediately entering the FA Cup.

First Football League game: 8 September, 1888, Football League, v Bolton W (a) W 6-3 – Marshall; Latham, Ferguson, Williamson; Monks, W. Roulstone; Bakewell (2), Cooper (2), Higgins, H. Plackett, L. Plackett (2).

Did you know: In 1904–05 Derby County made a club record start to their League season by winning their first five games and conceding only one goal in the process. This was in the First Division.

EVERTON

Foundation: St. Domingo Church Sunday School formed a football club in 1878 which played at Stanley Park. Enthusiasm was so great that in November 1879 they decided to expand membership and changed the name to Everton playing in black shirts with a white sash and nicknamed the "Black Watch". After wearing several other colours, royal blue was adopted in 1901.

First Football League game: 8 September, 1888, Football League, v Accrington (h) W 2-1 – Smalley; Dick, Ross; Holt, Jones, Dobson; Fleming (2), Waugh, Lewis, E. Chadwick, Farmer.

Did you know: Everton was the first Football League club to provide Scotland with two players for the international against England. Jack Robertson and John Bell appeared in the side beaten 3-1 at Celtic Park in April 1898.

EXETER CITY

Foundation: Exeter City was formed in 1904 by the amalgamation of St. Sidwell's United and Exeter United. The club first played in the East Devon League and then the Plymouth & District League. After an exhibition match between West Bromwich Albion and Woolwich Arsenal was held to test interest as Exeter was then a rugby stronghold, Exeter City decided at a meeting at the Red Lion Hotel to turn professional in 1908.

First Football League game: 28 August, 1920, Division 3, v Brentford (h) W 3-0 – Pym; Coleburne, Feebury (1p); Crawshaw, Carrick, Mitton; Appleton, Makin, Wright (1), Vowles (1), Dockray.

Did you know: City's first professional, Jack Banks, made his debut for them in a Plymouth & District League game against Millbrook Rangers at St James' Park on 14 December 1907. However the game was abandoned 20 minutes after the interval when for the third time that afternoon the ball burst and there were no more available.

GILLINGHAM

Foundation: The success of the pioneering Royal Engineers of Chatham excited the interest of the residents of the Medway Towns and led to the formation of many clubs including Excelsior. After winning the Kent Junior Cup and the Chatham District League in 1893, Excelsior decided to go for bigger things and it was at a meeting in the Napier Arms, Brompton, in 1893 that New Brompton FC came into being as a professional concern, securing the use of a ground in Priestfield Road.

First Football League game: 28 August, 1920, Division 3, v Southampton (h) D 1-1 – Branfield; Robertson, Sissons; Battiste, Baxter, Wigmore; Holt, Hall, Gilbey (1), Roe, Gore.

Did you know: Irishman Damien Richardson scored his first goal for the Gills against Mansfield Town on 11 November 1972 and reached his century of League and Cup goals against the same opponents on 8 March 1980.

HALIFAX TOWN

Foundation: The idea of a soccer club in a Rugby League stronghold was first mooted by a Mr. A. E. Muir who soon interested Joe McClelland (who became secretary-manager of the new club) and Dr. A. H. Muir their first chairman. Following correspondence in The Halifax Evening Courier the club was formed at a meeting at the Saddle Hotel in May 1911.

First Football League game: 27 August, 1921, Division 3 (N), v Darlington (a) L 0-2 – Haldane; Hawley, Mackrill; Hall, Wellock, Challinor; Pinkey, Hetherington, Woods, Dent, Phipps.

Did you know: Halifax Town's most prolific goalscorer, Yorkshireman Ernest Dixon actually topped their League score-sheet in no less than seven consecutive seasons 1922–29. He joined Huddersfield Town in September 1929 but moved to Nelson the following month.

HARTLEPOOL UNITED

Foundation: The inspiration for the launching of Hartlepool United was the West Hartlepool club which won the FA Amateur Cup in 1904–05. They had been in existence since 1881 and their Cup success led in 1908 to the formation of the new professional concern which first joined the North-Eastern League. In those days they were Hartlepools United and won the Durham Senior Cup in their first two seasons.

First Football League game: 27 August, 1921, Division 3 (N), v Wrexham (a) W 2-0 – Gill; Thomas, Crilly; Dougherty, Hopkins, Short; Kessler, Mulholland (1), Lister (1), Robertson, Donald.

Did you know: Albert Mundy's record of scoring for Aldershot at Hartlepools in only six seconds is well known, but Doug Cooper scored for Hartlepool against Aldershot in only 20 seconds in November 1960.

HUDDERSFIELD TOWN

Foundation: A meeting, attended largely by members of the Huddersfield & District FA, was held at the Imperial Hotel in 1906 to discuss the feasibility of establishing a football club in this rugby stronghold. However, it was not until a man with both the enthusiasm and the money to back the scheme came on the scene, that real progress was made. This benefactor was Mr. Hilton Crowther and it was at a meeting at the Albert Hotel in 1908, that the club formally came into existence with a capital of £2,000 and joined the North-Eastern League.

First Football League game: 3 September, 1910, Division 2, v Bradford PA (a) W 1-0 – Mutch; Taylor, Morris; Beaton, Hall, Bartlett; Blackburn, Wood, Hamilton (1), McCubbin, Jee.

Did you know: In 1923–24 when most League sides played the same opponents on successive Saturdays, Charlie Wilson netted a hat-trick against Arsenal in a 3-1 win at Highbury and followed this with another hat-trick in a 6-1 victory over the Gunners at Huddersfield.

HULL CITY

Foundation: The enthusiasts who formed Hull City in 1904 were brave men indeed. More than that they were audacious for they immediately put the club on the map in this Rugby League fortress by obtaining a three-year agreement with the Hull Rugby League club to rent their ground! They had obtained quite a number of conversions to the dribbling code, before the Rugby League forbade the use of any of their club grounds by Association Football clubs. By that time, Hull City were well away having entered the FA Cup in their initial season and the Football League, Second Division after only a year.

First Football League game: 2 September, 1905, Division 2, v Barnsley (h) W 4-1 – Spendiff; Langley, Jones; Martin, Robinson, Gordon (2); Rushton, Spence (1), Wilson (1), Howe, Raisbeck.

Did you know: David Mercer scored six goals for Hull City against Sheffield United on 4 January 1919. No wonder United paid what was then a record fee of £4,500 for this player in December 1920.

IPSWICH TOWN

Foundation: Considering that Ipswich Town only reached the Football League in 1938, many people outside of East Anglia may be surprised to learn that this club was formed at a meeting held in the Town Hall as far back as 1878 when Mr. T. C. Cobbold, MP, was voted president. Originally it was the Ipswich Association FC to distinguish it from the older Ipswich Football Club which played rugby. These two amalgamated in 1888 and the handling game was dropped in 1893.

First Football League game: 27 August, 1938, Division 3 (S), v Southend U (h) W 4-2 – Burns; Dale, Parry; Perrett, Fillingham, McLuckie; Williams, Davies (1), Jones (2), Alsop (1), Little.

Did you know: During their first Football League season in 1938–39 their Portman Road ground was so badly flooded that it was impossible to gain access by normal means. Their Third Division game with Reading on 28 January was postponed and the team received their wages at the local police station.

Managers (and Secretary-managers)
Mick O'Brien 1936–37, Scott Duncan 1937–55 (continued as secretary), Alf Ramsey 1955–63, Jackie Milburn 1963–64, Bill McGarry 1964–68, Bobby Robson 1969–82, Bobby Ferguson 1982–87, Johnny Duncan 1987–90, John Lyall May 1990–.

LEEDS UNITED

Foundation: Immediately the Leeds City club (founded in 1904) was wound up by the FA in October 1919, following allegations of illegal payments to players, a meeting was called by a Leeds solicitor, Mr. Alf Masser, at which Leeds United was formed. They joined the Midland League playing their first game in that competition in November 1919. It was in this same month that the new club had discussions with the directors of a virtually bankrupt Huddersfield Town who wanted to move to Leeds in an amalgamation. But Huddersfield survived even that crisis.

First Football League game: 28 August, 1920, Division 2, v Port Vale (a) L 0-2 – Down; Duffield, Tillotson; Musgrove, Baker, Walton; Mason, Goldthorpe, Thompson, Lyon, Best.

Did you know: In 1926–27 United's Scottish international centre-forward Tom Jennings scored three hat-tricks (3-4-4) in consecutive games. Around this spell he netted 19 goals in nine successive First Division games.

LEICESTER CITY

Foundation: In 1884 a number of young footballers who were mostly old boys of Wyggeston School, held a meeting at a house on the Roman Fosse Way and formed Leicester Fosse FC. They collected 9d (less than 4p) towards the cost of a ball, plus the same amount for membership. Their first professional, Harry Webb from Stafford Rangers, was signed in 1888 for 2s 6d (12p) per week, plus travelling expenses.

First Football League game: 1 September, 1894, Division 2, v Grimsby T (a) L 3-4 – Thraves; Smith, Bailey; Seymour, Brown, Henrys; Hill, Hughes, McArthur (1), Skea (2), Priestman.

Did you know: In 1924–25 City not only had the Second Division's highest goalscorer in Arthur Chandler with 32 goals, but the second highest in Johnny Duncan with 30. They won promotion that season.

LEYTON ORIENT

Foundation: There is some doubt about the foundation of Leyton Orient, and, indeed, some confusion with clubs like Leyton and Clapton over their early history. As regards the foundation, the most favoured version is that Leyton Orient was formed originally by members of Homerton Theological College who established Glyn Cricket Club in 1881 and then carried on through the following winter playing football. Eventually many employees of the Orient Shipping Line became involved and so the name Orient was chosen in 1888.

First Football League game: 2 September, 1905, Division 2, v Leicester Fosse (a) L 1-2 – Butler; Holmes, Codling; Lamberton, Boden, Boyle; Kingaby (1), Wootten, Leigh, Evenson, Bourne.

Did you know: Goalkeeper Arthur Wood enjoyed a remarkable run of 235 consecutive League and Cup appearances for the Orient from September 1921 to December 1926. He then missed the game at Blackpool in which Orient were beaten 6-0.

LIVERPOOL

Foundation: But for a dispute between Everton FC and their landlord at Anfield in 1892, there may never have been a Liverpool club. This dispute persuaded the majority of Evertonians to quit Anfield for Goodison Park, leaving the landlord, Mr. John Houlding, to form a new club. He originally tried to retain the name "Everton" but when this failed, he founded Liverpool Association FC on 15 March, 1892.

Did you know: In 1967–68 Liverpool fielded an unchanged side for their first 12 League games and made only one change in their first 17. The original team was: Lawrence;, Lawler, Byrne, Smith, Yeats, Hughes, Callaghan, Hunt, Hateley, St John, Thompson.

LUTON TOWN

Foundation: Formed by an amalgamation of two leading local clubs, Wanderers and Excelsior a works team, at a meeting in Luton Town Hall in April 1885. The Wanderers had three months earlier changed their name to Luton Town Wanderers and did not take too kindly to the formation of another Town club but were talked around at this meeting. Wanderers had already appeared in the FA Cup and the new club entered in its inaugural season.

First Football League game: 4 September, 1897, Division 2, v Leicester Fosse (a) D 1-1 – Williams; McCartney, McEwen; Davies, Stewart, Docherty; Gallacher, Coupar, Birch, McInnes, Ekins (1).

Did you know: Joe Payne was not the only prolific goalscorer to move from Luton to Chelsea. Another whose career was largely swallowed up by the Second World War was local discovery Hugh Billington. He scored two goals when making his League debut in November 1938 and had registered four hat-tricks before the war interrupted the League programme. Afterwards he added another three trebles before his transfer to Chelsea in 1948.

MANCHESTER CITY

Foundation: Manchester City was formed as a Limited Company in 1894 after their predecessors Ardwick had been forced into bankruptcy. However, many historians like to trace the club's lineage as far back as 1880 when St. Mark's Church, West Gorton added a football section to their cricket club. They amalgamated with Gorton Athletic in 1884 as Gorton FC. Because of a change of ground they became Ardwick in 1887.

First Football League game: 3 September, 1892, Division 2, v Bootle (h) W 7-0 – Douglas; McVickers, Robson; Middleton, Russell, Hopkins; Davies (3), Morris (2), Angus (1), Weir (1), Milarvie.

Did you know: One of City's most prolific scorers was Jim Currier who may be unknown to many of the club's fans because he was only "guesting" from Bolton Wanderers during World War Two. However, in 1940–41 he scored 47 League and Cup goals including five in successive games against Rochdale beaten 9-1 and 6-1.

MANCHESTER UNITED

Foundation: Manchester United was formed as comparatively recently as 1902 after their predecessors, Newton Heath, went bankrupt. However, it is usual to give the date of the club's foundation as 1878 when employees of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company formed Newton Heath L and YR. Cricket and Football Club. They won the Manchester Cup in 1886 and as Newton Heath FC were admitted to the Second Division in 1892.

First Football League game: 3 September, 1892, Division 1, v Blackburn R (a) L 3-4 – Warner; Clements, Brown; Perrins, Stewart, Erentz; Farman (1), Coupar (1), Donaldson (1), Carson, Mathieson.

Did you know: The nearest United came to equalling their record of 14 League wins in a row in 1904–05 in Division Two, was at the start of 1985–86 when they won their first ten First Division games.

MANSFIELD TOWN

Foundation: Many records give the date of Mansfield Town's formation as 1905. But the present club did not come into being until 1910 when the Mansfield Wesleyans (formed 1891) and playing in the Notts and District League, decided to spread their wings and changed their name to Mansfield Town, joining the new Central Alliance in 1911.

First Football League game: 29 August, 1931, Division 3 (S), v Swindon T (h) W 3-2 – Wilson; Clifford, England; Wake, Davis, Blackburn; Gilhespy, Readman (1), Johnson, Broom (2), Baxter.

Did you know: Mansfield's record goalscorer Ted Harston scored a hat-trick when making his debut for them against Southport, 19 October 1935, following his transfer from Bristol City.

NEWCASTLE UNITED

Foundation: It stemmed from a newly formed club called Stanley in 1881. In October 1882 they changed their name to Newcastle East End to avoid confusion with Stanley in Co. Durham. Shortly afterwards another club Rosewood merged with them. Newcastle West End had been formed in August 1882 and they played on a ground which is now St. James' Park. In 1889, West End went out of existence after a bad run and the remaining committee men invited East End to move to St. James' Park. They accepted and at a meeting in Bath Lane Hall in 1892, changed their name to Newcastle United.

First Football League game: 2 September, 1893, Division 2, v Royal Arsenal (a) D 2-2 – Ramsay; Jeffery, Miller; Crielly, Graham, McKane; Bowman, Crate (1), Thompson, Sorley (1), Wallace. Graham and not Crate scored according to some reports.

Did you know: United's FA Cup-winning side of 1910 included nine internationals. The side was Lawrence; McCracken, Carr, Veitch, Low, McWilliam, Rutherford, Howie, Shepherd, Higgins, Wilson. At the time only Lawrence and Low had not been capped but they received this honour in the following season.

NORWICH CITY

Foundation: Formed in 1902, largely through the initiative of two local schoolmasters who called a meeting at the Criterion Cafe, they were shocked by an FA Commission which in 1904 declared the club professional and ejected them from the FA Amateur Cup. However, this only served to strengthen their determination. New officials were appointed and a professional club established at a meeting in the Agricultural Hall in March 1905.

First Football League game: 28 August, 1920, Division 3, v Plymouth A (a) D 1-1 – Skermer; Gray, Gadsden; Wilkinson, Addy, Martin; Laxton, Kidger, Parker, Whitham (1), Dobson.

Did you know: When Norwich beat Brighton 18-0 in the wartime South Regional League on Christmas Day 1940, ten of the goals were scored in the first half with top scorer Fred Chadwick ("guesting" from Ipswich Town) getting six. Brighton were short of players and made up the number on arrival at the ground.

NOTTINGHAM FOREST

Foundation: One of the oldest football clubs in the world, Nottingham Forest was formed at a meeting in the Clinton Arms in 1865. Known originally as the Forest Football Club, the game which first drew the founders together was "shinney" a form of hockey. When they determined to change to football in 1865, one of their first moves was to buy a set of red caps to wear on the field.

First Football League game: 3 September, 1892, Division 2, v Everton (a) D 2-2 – Brown; Earp, Scott; Hamilton, A. Smith, McCracken; McCallum, W. Smith, Higgins (2), Pike, McInnes.

Did you know: Grenville Morris created a club record in 1902–03 by scoring in eight consecutive League games for the Forest. Dave "Boy" Martin equalled the run of games in 1936–37 but his total of ten goals was one short of Morris.

NOTTS COUNTY

Foundation: For many years the foundation date of the Football League's oldest club was given as 1862 and the club celebrated its centenary in 1962. However, the researches of Keith Warsop have since shown that the club was on a very haphazard basis at that time, playing little more than practice matches. The meeting which put it on a firm footing was held at the George IV Hotel in December 1864, when they became known as the Notts Football Club.

OXFORD UNITED

Foundation: There had been an Oxford United club around the time of World War I but only in the Oxfordshire Thursday League and there is no connection with the modern club which began as Headington in 1893, adding "United" a year later. Playing first on Quarry Fields and subsequently Wootten's Fields, they owe much to a Dr. Hitchings for their early development.

First Football League game: 18 August, 1962, Division 4, v Barrow (a) L 2-3 – Medlock; Beavon, Quartermain; R. Atkinson, Kyle, Jones; Knight, G. Atkinson (1), Houghton (1), Cornwell, Colfar.

Did you know: Oxford United failed to score in only six out of 64 League and Cup games in 1983–84 when 15 of their players appeared on the scoresheet.

Managers (and Secretary-managers)

PLYMOUTH ARGYLE

Foundation: The Plymouth Argyle Association Football Club developed out of the Argyle Athletic club which was formed in 1886 at a meeting in Argyle Terrace, Mutley. Plymouth was a rugby stronghold, but servicemen brought soccer to the town and it spread quickly. At first Argyle Athletic Club played both soccer and rugby in colours of green and black. The rugby section was eventually disbanded, and after a number of exhibition games had satisfied the locals of the feasibility of running a professional club, Plymouth Argyle was formed in 1903.

First Football League game: 28 August 1920, Division 3, v Norwich C (h) D 1-1 – Craig; Russell, Atterbury; Logan, Dickinson, Forbes; Kirkpatrick, Jack, Bowler, Heeps (1), Dixon.

Did you know: When Argyle finished Division 3 (S) runners-up six times in a row in the 1920s it was suggested that they did not want promotion (only the top team gained went up those days). However, their finish of a draw followed by five successive victories in one of those seasons (1926–27) is still a club record.

PRESTON NORTH END

Foundation: North End Cricket and Rugby Club which was formed in 1863, indulged in most sports before taking up soccer in about 1879. In 1881 they decided to stick to football to the exclusion of other sports and even a 16-0 drubbing by Blackburn Rovers in an invitation game at Deepdale, a few weeks after taking this decision, did not deter them for they immediately became affiliated to the Lancashire FA.

First Football League game: 8 September 1888, Football League, v Burnley (h) W 5-2 – Trainer; Haworth, Holmes; Robertson, W. Graham, J. Graham; Gordon (1), Ross (2), Goodall, Dewhurst (2), Drummond.

Did you know: Johnny Goodall was the first player ever to score hat-tricks in successive Football League games when he helped Preston to beat Wolves 5-2 and Notts County 7-0 in October – November 1888.

QUEENS PARK RANGERS

Foundation: There is an element of doubt about the date of the foundation of this club, but it is believed that in either 1885 or 1886 it was formed through the amalgamation of Christchurch Rangers and St. Jude's Institute FC. The leading light was George Wodehouse, whose family maintained a connection with the club until comparatively recent times. Most of the players came from the Queen's Park district so this name was adopted after a year as St. Jude's Institute.

First Football League game: 28 August, 1920, Division 3, v Watford (h) L 1-2 – Price; Blackman, Wingrove; McGovern, Grant, O'Brien; Faulkner, Birch (1), Smith, Gregory, Middlemiss.

Did you know: Rangers' list of managers includes a sequence of an Irishman, Scotsman, Welshman and an Englishman, namely Mick O'Brien, Billy Birrell, Ted Vizard and Dave Mangnall.

ROCHDALE

Foundation: Considering the love of rugby in their area, it is not surprising that Rochdale had difficulty in establishing an Association Football club. The earlier Rochdale Town club formed in 1900 went out of existence in 1907 when the present club was immediately established and joined the Manchester League, before graduating to the Lancashire Combination in 1908.

First Football League game: 27 August 1921, Division 3 (N), v Accrington Stanley (h) W 6-3 – Crabtree; Nuttall, Sheehan; Hill, Farrer, Yarwood; Hoad, Sandiford, Dennison (2), Owens (3), Carney (1).

Did you know: In one of the finest goalscoring spells in Rochdale's history in 1926–27, Albert Whitehurst scored in ten out of 11 successive League games, totalling 21 goals including five against Chesterfield.

ROTHERHAM UNITED

Foundation: This club traces its history back to the formation of Thornhill United in 1878 (reformed 1884). They changed their name to Rotherham County in 1905. Confusion exists because of the existence of the Rotherham Town club (founded c. 1885) and in the Football League as early as 1893 but this club was not the one previously mentioned. The Town amalgamated with Rotherham County to form Rotherham United in 1925.

First Football League game: 2 September 1893, Division 2, Rotherham T v Lincoln C (a) D 1-1 – McKay; Thickett, Watson; Barr, Brown, Broadhead; Longden, Cutts, Leatherbarrow, McCormick, Pickering. (1 og). 30 August 1919, Division 2, Rotherham C v Nottingham F (h) W 2-0 – Branston; Alton, Baines; Bailey, Coe, Stanton; Lee (1), Cawley (1), Glennon, Lees, Lamb.

Did you know: In 1950–51 Rotherham fielded four players named Williams who were unrelated – Horace, Bobby, Danny and Ken.

SCUNTHORPE UNITED

Foundation: The year of foundation for Scunthorpe United has often been quoted as 1910, but the club can trace its history back to 1899 when Brumby Hall FC, who played on the Old Showground, consolidated their position by amalgamating with some other clubs and changing their name to Scunthorpe United. The year 1910 was when that club amalgamated with North Lindsey United as Scunthorpe and Lindsey United. The link is Mr. W. T. Lockwood whose chairmanship covers both years.

First Football League game: 19 August, 1950, Division 3 (N), v Shrewsbury T (h) D 0-0 – Thompson; Barker, Brownsword; Allen, Taylor, McCormick; Mosby, Payne, Gorin, Rees, Boyes.

Did you know: In FA Cup-ties in the 1950s Scunthorpe, then in Division 3 (N), beat one First Division side (Newcastle United) and held two others (Sunderland and Portsmouth) to draws, all away from home.

SHEFFIELD UNITED

Foundation: In March 1889, Yorkshire County Cricket Club formed Sheffield United six days after an FA Cup semi-final between Preston North End and West Bromwich Albion had finally convinced Charles Stokes, a member of the cricket club, that the formation of a professional football club would prove successful at Bramall Lane. The United's first secretary, Mr. J. B. Wostinholm was also secretary of the cricket club.

First Football League game: 3 September 1892, Division 2, v Lincoln C (h) W 4-2 – Lilley; Witham, Cain; Howell, Hendry, Needham (1); Wallace, Dobson, Hammond (3), Davies, Drummond.

Did you know: When United enjoyed their record away League victory 10-0 at Burslem Port Vale in December 1892, they were four goals ahead after only six minutes. It was their first away League win of the season.

SHREWSBURY TOWN

Foundation: Shrewsbury School having provided a number of the early England and Wales internationals it is not surprising that there was a Town club as early as 1876 which won the Birmingham Senior Cup in 1879. However, the present Shrewsbury Town club was formed in 1886 and won the Welsh FA Cup as early as 1891.

First Football League game: 19 August, 1950, Division 3 (N), v Scunthorpe U (a) D 0-0 – Eggleston; Fisher, Lewis; Wheatley, Depear, Robinson; Griffin, Hope, Jackson, Brown, Barker.

Did you know: When Arthur Rowley broke the British first-class goalscoring record with his 411th League goal at 8.14 pm on 26 September 1962 with a right-foot shot against Millwall, the game was held up as fans invaded the pitch to congratulate him. He had equalled the record at Millwall nine days earlier.

STOKE CITY

Foundation: The date of the formation of this club has long been in doubt. The year 1863 was claimed, but more recent research by Wade Martin has uncovered nothing earlier than 1868, when a couple of Old Carthusians, who were apprentices at the local works of the old North Staffordshire Railway Company, met with some others from that works, to form Stoke Ramblers. It should also be noted that the old Stoke club went bankrupt in 1908 when a new club was formed.

First Football League game: 8 September 1888, Football League, v WBA (h) L 0-2 – Rowley; Clare, Underwood; Ramsey, Shutt, Smith; Sayer, McSkimming, Staton, Edge, Tunnicliffe.

Did you know: In 1931–32 when Stoke finished third in Division Two they fielded the same team for 16 consecutive weeks – a club record. The line-up was Lewis; McGrory, Beachill, Robertson, Turner, Sellars, Liddle, Bussey, Mawson, Sale, Archibald.

SUNDERLAND

Foundation: A Scottish schoolmaster named James Allan, working at Hendon Boarding School, took the initiative in the foundation of Sunderland in 1879 when they were formed as The Sunderland and District Teachers' Association FC at a meeting in the Adults School, Norfolk Street. Because of financial difficulties, they quickly allowed members from outside the teaching profession and so became Sunderland AFC in October 1880.

First Football League game: 13 September, 1890, Football League, v Burnley (h) L 2-3 – Kirtley; Porteous, Oliver; Wilson, Auld, Gibson; Spence (1), Miller, Campbell (1), Scott, D. Hannah.

SWANSEA CITY

Foundation: The earliest Association Football in Wales was played in the Northern part of the country and no international took place in the South until 1894, when a local paper still thought it necessary to publish an outline of the rules and an illustration of the pitch markings. There had been an earlier Swansea club, but this has no connection with Swansea Town (now City) formed at a public meeting in June 1912.

First Football League game: 28 August 1920, Division 3, v Portsmouth (a) L 0-3 – Crumley; Robson, Evans; Smith, Holdsworth, Williams; Hole, I. Jones, Edmundson, Rigsby, Spottiswood.

Did you know: At the end of season 1931–32 Swansea had to meet Wrexham in a Welsh Cup Final replay. They chose to play on a Friday, the day before their last Second Division game of the season against Bury. Nine of the same players appeared in both games which they won by the same score – 2-0.

SWINDON TOWN

Foundation: It is generally accepted that Swindon Town came into being in 1881, although there is no firm evidence that the club's founder, Rev. William Pitt, captain of the Spartans (an offshoot of a cricket club) changed his club's name to Swindon Town before 1883, when the Spartans amalgamated with St. Mark's Young Men's Friendly Society.

First Football League game: 28 August 1920, Division 3, v Luton T (h) W 9-1 – Nash; Kay, Macconachie; Langford, Hawley, Wareing; Jefferson (1), Fleming (4), Rogers, Batty (2), Davies (1). (1 og).

Did you know: In a Division 3 (S) game at home to Bournemouth on 2 January 1926, Swindon were 2-0 down after only ten minutes but then went on to win 8-2 with Frank "Swerver" Richardson scoring four.

TORQUAY UNITED

Foundation: The idea of establishing a Torquay club was agreed by olboys of Torquay College and Torbay College, while sitting in Princess Gardens listening to the band. A proper meeting was subsequently held at Tor Abbey Hotel at which officers were elected. This was in 1898 and the club's first competition was the Eastern League (later known as the East Devon League).

First Football League game: 27 August 1927, Division 3(S), v Exeter C (h) D 1-1 – Millsom; Cook, Smith; Wellock, Wragg, Connor, Mackey, Turner (1), Jones, McGovern, Thomson.

TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR

Foundation: The Hotspur Football Club was formed from an older cricket club in 1882. Most of the founders were old boys St. John's Presbyterian School and Tottenham Grammar School. The Casey brothers were well to the fore as the family provided the club's first goalposts (painted blue and white) and their first ball. They soon adopted the local YMCA as their meeting place, but after a couple of moves settled at the Red House, which is still their headquarters, although now known simply as 748 High Road.

First Football League game: 1 September, 1908, Division 2, v Wolverhampton W (h) W 3-0 – Hewitson; Coquet, Burton; Morris (1), Steel (D), Darnell; Walton, Woodward (2), Macfarlane, R. Steel, Middlemiss.

Did you know: Frank Osborne scored a hat-trick for Spurs in each of three consecutive First Division games in October and November 1925.

TRANMERE ROVERS

Foundation: Formed in 1884 as Belmont they adopted their present title the following year and eventually joined their first league, the West Lancashire League in 1889–90, the same year as their first success in the Wirral Challenge Cup. The club almost folded in 1899–1900 when all the players left en bloc to join a rival club, but they survived the crisis and went from strength to strength winning the 'Combination' title in 1907–08 and the Lancashire Combination in 1913–14. They joined the Football League in 1920 from the Central League.

WATFORD

Foundation: Tracing this club's foundation proves difficult. Nowadays it is suggested that Watford was formed as Watford Rovers in 1891. Another version is that Watford Rovers were not forerunners of the present club whose history began in 1898 with the amalgamation of West Herts and Watford St. Mary's.

First Football League game: 28 August 1920, Division 3, v QPR (a) W 2-1 – Williams; Horseman, F. Gregory; Bacon, Toone, Wilkinson; Bassett, Ronald (1), Hoddinott, White (1), Waterall.

Did you know: In February 1948 Watford signed five players from Leicester City in one of the biggest wholesale transfer deals in Football League history. They were John Osborne, Tom Hartley, Tom Eggleston, Joe Calvert and Dennis Cheney.

WEST BROMWICH ALBION

Foundation: There is a well known story that when employees of Salter's Spring Works in West Bromwich decided to form a football club in 1879, they had to send someone to the nearby Association Football stronghold of Wednesbury to purchase a football. A weekly subscription of 2d (less than 1p) was imposed and the name of the new club was West Bromwich Strollers.

First Football League game: 8 September 1888, Football League, v Stoke (a) W 2-0 – Roberts; J. Horton, Green; E. Horton, Perry, Bayliss; Bassett, Woodhall (1), Hendry, Pearson, Wilson (1).

Did you know: With William "Ginger" Richardson dominating the list of Albion's goalscoring feats, the fact that Harold "Popeye" Jones actually scored more goals in a single season is sometimes overlooked. This is because it was a wartime season, 1939–40, when he scored 50 first-team goals including six hat-tricks.

WEST HAM UNITED

Foundation: Thames Ironworks FC was formed by employees of this shipbuilding yard in 1895 and entered the FA Cup in their initial season at Chatham and the London League in their second. Short of funds, the club was wound up in June 1900 and relaunched a month later as West Ham United. Connection with the Ironworks was not finally broken until four years later.

First Football League game: 30 August 1919, Division 2, v Lincoln City (h) D 1-1 – Hufton; Cope, Lee; Lane, Fenwick, McCrae; D. Smith, Moyes (1), Puddefoot, Morris, Bradshaw.

Did you know: The Hammers must be the kind of club that attracts loyalty, for they have had four players each of whom have had more than 20 years on their books – Jim Barrett 1923–45, Dick Walker 1933–57, Ernie Gregory 1939–60 and Billy Bonds 1967–89.

Managers (and Secretary-managers)
Syd King 1902–32, Charlie Paynter 1932–50, Ted Fenton 1950–61, Ron Greenwood 1961–74 (continued as GM to 1977), John Lyall 1974–89, Lou Macari 1989–90, Billy Bonds February 1990–.

WOLVERHAMPTON WANDERERS

Foundation: Another club where precise details of information are confused, due in part to the existence of an earlier Wolverhampton club which played rugby. However, it is now considered likely that it came into being in 1879 when players from St. Luke's (founded 1877) and Goldthorn (founded 1876) broke away to form Wolverhampton Wanderers Association FC.

First Football League game: 8 September 1888, Football League, v Aston Villa (h) D 1-1 – Baynton; Baugh, Mason; Fletcher, Allen, Lowder; Hunter, Cooper, Anderson, White, Cannon. Scorer (Cox og).

YORK CITY

Foundation: Although there was a York City club formed in 1903 by a soccer enthusiast from Darlington, this has no connection with the modern club because it went out of existence during World War I. Unlike many others of that period who restarted in 1919, York City did not re-form until 1922 and the tendency now is to ignore the modern club's pre-1922 existence.

First Football League game: 31 August 1929, Division 3 (N), v Wigan Borough (a) W 2-0 – Farmery; Archibald, Johnson; Beck, Davis, Thompson; Evans, Gardner, Cowie (1), Smailes, Stockhill (1).

Did you know: After holding Newcastle United to a 1-1 draw at St James' Park in the FA Cup third round in 1929–30 (York's initial League season) nearly 13,000 packed their ground at Fulfordgate for the replay with the gates being locked 1½ hours before kick-off. York were beaten 2-1.

Managers (and Secretary-managers)
Bill Sherrington 1924–60 (was secretary for most of this time but virtually secretary-manager for a long pre-war spell), John Collier 1929–36, Tom Mitchell 1936–50, Dick Duckworth 1950–52, Charlie Spencer 1952–53, Jimmy McCormick 1953–54, Sam Bartram 1956–60, Tom Lockie 1960–67, Joe Shaw 1967–68, Tom Johnston 1968–75, Wilf McGuinness 1975–77, Charlie Wright 1977–80, Barry Lyons 1980–81, Denis Smith 1982–87, Bobby Saxton 1987–88, John Bird 1988–91, John Ward November 1991–.

END OF SEASON PLAY-OFFS 1991–92

The Football League's decision to implement a series of play-offs for promotion—and initially also relegation—coincided with the increase in attendances during the regular schedule of League games. The 1991–92 season proved no exception and crowds at Wembley for the finals of the three divisions involved again showed the interest aroused.

In the Fourth Division, Blackpool found themselves faced with a penalty shoot-out as in 1990–91. This time they won through at the expense of Scunthorpe United after the match finished at 1-1 following extra time.

The previous year Dave Bamber's failure from the penalty spot had ended Blackpool's hopes against Torquay United. Now he was able to feel sympathy for Scunthorpe players Graham Alexander and Jason White when they were literally put on the spot. Bamber had put Blackpool in front after 40 minutes, Tony Daws equalising seven minutes after the interval. Eventually Blackpool won 4-3 on penalties.

The Third Division epic nearly required extra time but Peterborough United managed to edge out Stockport County during 90 minutes in an exciting finale. Ken Charlery scored for Posh after 51 minutes with a header which hit the crossbar and bounced down. Was it over the line? Stockport came back strongly and with three minutes remaining, Kevin Francis equalised having had an earlier effort ruled out for offside. But Peterborough were not finished and Charlery raced through, shook off a defender and calmly lobbed the ball over the advancing Neil Edwards in the last minute.

The near 58,000 aggregate for these two finals was eclipsed by the Second Division affair between Blackburn Rovers and Leicester City. The 68,147 crowd was more than watched England and Brazil the previous weekend. Blackburn ended a 26-year exile out of the First Division, the year that England won the World Cup. The only goal came from a penalty conceded by Steve Walsh on David Speedie in the dying seconds of the first half. Mike Newell converted the kick. He had another opportunity from the spot six minutes from the final whistle, but this time Carl Muggleton in the Leicester goal saved the shot.

Blackburn's £6 million investment in players to achieve promotion under Kenny Dalglish was thus rewarded. The club has every reason to be grateful for the financial assistance rendered by chairman Jack Walker.

The things they said . . .

Anonymous First Division chairman, after the clubs voting for a breakaway premier league had been accused of greed:
"What's wrong with greed?" June 1991.

Vicenzo Mataresse, Bari chief, to David Platt:
"You're better than Paul Gascoigne. That's why I paid £5½ million for you." July 1991.

Steve Coppell, Crystal Palace manager, on the proposed 'super league':
". . . the worst thing to have happened to football for a long time . . . The big clubs will get richer, leaving a situation like the one in Scotland, where only three teams have a realistic chance of winning anything." 1 August 1991.

Jim Farry, Scottish FA secretary, after 16 players had been sent off in the first week of the season:
"The main reason is the total ignorance of so-called professional players. They obviously don't know the laws of the game." 17 August 1991.

David Hay, St Mirren manager, on the same subject:
"Referees are following rules made by men who don't pay to watch football. Those rules are ruining the game for those who do. I appreciate they are trying to make the game more entertaining . . . but is it working?" 17 August 1991.

Terry Butcher, Coventry manager, after his side lost 1-0 at home to Wimbledon:
"I'd like to apologize to all the fans who paid good money to watch that. If people are subjected to that kind of garbage every Saturday, the crowds will be down to 200. If that game is the future of British football, I want no part of it." 31 August 1991.

Mike Bateson, Torquay chairman:
"I deplore the practice of sacking managers willy-nilly, despite the fact that two have been sacked in the 18 months I've been here." October 1991.

Graham Taylor, England manager, arguing for a reduction in size of the new Premier League, after finding 12 injured players in his squad for the European Championship qualifying match against Turkey:
"I don't think I would be doing my job if I did not make the point that we cannot carry on hammering our best players like this." 7 October 1991.

Sir Alf Ramsey, on England's 1-0 victory over Turkey at Wembley:
". . . performance was regrettable and a total misunderstanding in that it involved a team that could not possibly play together. It was a selection mistake by the manager, even allowing for the problems and the players who were unfit beforehand."

Bobby Charlton, on the same match:
"There was simply no cohesion in that England performance. There was no adventure and no one like Paul Gascoigne who was inventive."

Steve Coppell, joining the growing band of managers concerned with the increased workload on the leading players:
"We are treating top quality athletes like shire horses." 31 October 1991.

Jimmy Greaves, commenting on a refereeing decision during a televised Rumbelows Cup tie:
"I don't know what's going on out there, but whatever it is it's diabolical." October 1991.

Don Howe's tribute to Bryan Robson on his retirement from international football:
"He had a terrific inner drive and an inner desire to win. He always wanted to win more than anyone else. And he wanted to do that, not to grab a headline, but for his team and country." November 1991.

Gordon Taylor, PFA chief executive, on Sir John Quinton and Rick Parry, the new Premier League's chairman and chief executive designate, respectively:
"It's quite clear that football isn't safe in their hands." 15 December 1991.

Ken Bates, Chelsea chairman, in his programme notes:
"At a time when he complains of too many League games, I see he is planning more friendly matches at international level. When Graham Taylor pays the players' wages, he can call the tune." 15 December 1991.

Mike Bateson, Torquay chairman, after the FA took no further action against Brentford's Gary Blissett for the challenge that left Torquay's John Uzzell with a badly smashed cheekbone:
"We are spending enormous time and money to try to make football the family game that it was. To allow this to happen on the pitch, I know certain areas where it might have caused a riot. The FA are allowing hooliganism on the pitch to go unpunished." 20 January 1992.

Nat Lofthouse, on Third Division Bolton before their fourth round Cup tie:
"We're a First Division club in every sense of the word." 24 January 1992.

Sir John Hall, Newcastle chairman, on his manager's status:
"Let's kill off once and for all the rumours that Ossie's job is on the line. If he leaves this club, it will be of his own volition." 2 February 1992.

Kevin Keegan, after being presented to the Press by Sir John Hall as Newcastle's new manager:
"This is the only job in the world that I would ever have taken." 5 February 1992.

Sir John Hall, after sacking Ardiles:
"I feel absolutely dreadful about what has happened. . . . When I said those words, I meant each and every one of them."

Samesh Kumar, Birmingham chairman, after crowd disturbances during the match with Stoke led to a 20-minute interruption:
"There were some scandalous decisions by the referee and you can understand supporters being incited, but we don't condone violence. There has been no trouble here for 18 months." 29 February 1992.

Graeme Souness, Liverpool manager, after their physical game with Southampton:
"The referee was a disgrace. If that is the standard of refereeing, then English football has no future." 29 February 1992.

Kenny Hibbitt, Walsall manager, on the match referee after Chris Marsh was sent off against Cardiff:
"It was handbag stuff. If you start sending players off for scratching at each other, then you might as well send a team out wearing skirts." 8 March 1992.

Joseph S. Blatter, FIFA General Secretary, writing in FIFA News:
"In North America . . . the professional referee has long been a way of life. So he should be in football, the world's premier sport." March 1992.

Gerry Francis, QPR manager, after his side went 17 games with only one defeat:
"We are so high in the table, our noses are bleeding." 15 March 1992.

Brian Clough, on hearing the Liverpool manager was going in for heart surgery:
"My heart goes out to Graeme Souness." April 1992.

Barry Fry, Barnet manager, twice a heart-attack victim:
"If you think Liverpool is a danger to your health, try managing Barnet."

Michael Parkinson, Daily Telegraph feature writer, on the Souness/Sun affair:
"It is difficult to imagine the new polished image of soccer they keep talking about when the manager of one of our most respected teams is pictured on the front page of a tabloid paper eating his girlfriend. . . . What he did was so crass, so insensitive and so plain bloody silly that he must still have been under the influence of the anaesthetic when the pictures were taken." 20 April 1992.

David Pleat, Luton manager, on his club's orange away strip:
"It's a bloody stupid colour. I think one of the directors' wives must have chosen it." April 1992.

Kop choir to Manchester United team, whose title hopes had just disappeared at Anfield:
"Always look on the bright side of life." May 1992.

Sunderland Greats* book, in the biography of one of the old Roker heroes:
"Constructed entirely from pre-cast concrete, Charlie Hurley is without doubt the greatest human being to have ever lived. . . . He often played when fatally injured with his head missing."

Trevor Summers, new West Brom chairman, on the sacking of the manager:
"If Bobby Gould is honest, he knew he had to win something this season, because he didn't have a hope of staying if he didn't. His style of play at times was not what the fans wanted." 5 May 1992.

David Hill, Sky TV head of sport, on the new £304m deal with the FA Premier League:
"The biggest advance in TV football since the invention of the camera." May 1992.

Alex Ferguson, Manchester United manager, on the same subject:
"The most ludicrous and backward step football has taken for a long time."

Rick Parry, the FA Premier League chief executive, on ITV's attempt to block the Sky deal:
"We're not going to have a Premier League at this rate, with me in court all the time."

Gary Lineker:
"I'm not as nice as all that. In fact I swore only last week."

Terry Venables, on seeing Paul Gascoigne finally sign for Lazio:
"It's like watching your mother-in-law drive over a cliff in your new car."

Rod Stewart, rock star and stalwart Scottish fan, on the birth of his daughter:
"It's like seeing Scotland score a goal. You never get used to it."

Mr Ellemann-Jensen, the Danish Foreign Minister, after Denmark, fresh from their referendum opting out of the Maastricht Treaty, won the European Championships by beating Germany 2-0 in the final:
"If you can't join them, beat them." 26 June 1992.

Peter Schmeichel, the Danish goalkeeper, and John Jensen (7) combine to prevent Germany scoring in the 1992 European Championship Final. Denmark won 2-0. (Colorsport)

THE FOOTBALL TRUST

Helping the game

During the past year, the Football Trust has received over £32m to support the game at all levels. The Government annually contributes some £20m from the 1990 Budget concession on pool betting duty, and a further £12m is donated by the pools companies Littlewoods, Vernons and Zetters from their Spotting-the-Ball competition.

The Trust's prime responsibility is to assess the professional game to fund capital works in line with the recommendations of the Taylor Report. Trust grants have been awarded to English and Scottish League clubs for major projects such as relocation schemes, new stands and seating and roofing initiatives. The Trust also awards grants to enable clubs to pursue important safety work and facility improvements. Initiatives include facilities for people with disabilities, family enclosures, new toilets, and anti-hooligan measures such as closed circuit television, stewarding and transport improvements. Last season, the Trust offered over £7.7m towards improving the safety and comfort of supporters throughout England and Scotland, bringing the Trust's total support for safety and improvement work to some £62.6m. A further £2.5m was awarded in grant aid to assist clubs with policing and stewarding costs, and £600,000 towards the installation and upgrading of CCTV at 32 English and Scottish League grounds.

The remainder of the Trust's income is allocated to projects for the general benefit of the game in the pyramid and at grass roots level. Grants have been made towards essential safety work at non-League clubs and for pitch and dressing room improvements. The Trust has also continued to support the dual use of educational facilities, artificial floodlight pitches, hard surface play areas, charitable playing fields' organizations, youth and community groups and the supply of kit to junior teams.

JEWSON'S FAMILY INVOLVEMENT

Advertising and sponsorship go hand in hand with top sport these days and Association Football is no exception. One of the big deals which helped clubs throughout the Football League last season was the Jewson deal worth more than £2.5m, spread over three years.

The Norwich based builders' merchants chain paid out £350,000 in each of the first two years to a total of 57 League clubs for improvements to family and disabled fans' enclosures and facilities. It was broken down to five awards of £20,000 each season to five First Division clubs, six of £15,000 for Division Two and eight £10,000 grants to clubs in both Divisions Three and Four.

The projects included diverse schemes like Aldershot's renovating the family room, to Birmingham's improving the Junior Blues room to providing a crèche and family-area seating at York. The total cost of all the projects undertaken by Football League clubs in the first two years of the scheme amounted to some £4.5m.

Of the bigger ventures Bradford embarked on a two-tier stand which accommodates nearly 2,000 family spectators, so fathers can keep an eye on their children and still watch the game. A similar redevelopment was carried out by Welsh club Cardiff City. The scheme certainly goes a long way to help reburnish the game's image at top level and makes it more convivial for folk of all ages to watch.

And to further improve the participation of families in football, Jewson ran a parallel scheme, in conjunction with national Sunday newspaper The People, whereby fans could nominate their clubs for an extra award.

Bobby Moore, captain of England's World Cup winning team in 1966 was a key member of the judging committee which decided the top two clubs in each of the four divisions and the overall winner.

Sunderland took the top prize of £30,000 in 1992 with Aston Villa (Div 1), Brentford (Div 3) and Walsall (Div 4) each collecting £15,000; Leeds, Newcastle, Leyton Orient and Scunthorpe all collected £1,000 as runners-up in their respective divisions.

Factors considered by the judging committee included facilities, team involvement with the fans, innovations and community relations. The awards could be spent by the winners in any way they liked — even towards signing a player if necessary!

In the 1992–93 season the awards will be restricted to Divisions One, Two and Three as it is considered the new Premier League will be funded from other sources and is outside the Football League with whom the deal was struck by Jewsons.

Obviously the deal benefits both the clubs and the sponsors. Not only do the teams such as those in the lower divisions pick up extra income, but they also can obtain the materials at discounted prices. On the other side of the coin, Jewsons gain name exposure at the League's stadia as well as word-of-mouth publicity. No doubt other such schemes to benefit the game will be forthcoming . . . and the more the merrier.

THE SCOTTISH SEASON 1991–92

This was a season with some good and some bad and a fair amount pretty indifferent. Which would you like first?

It has to be said that we did not do well in the European club events. Celtic were the only team of the four to make any headway at all, and they were comprehensively defeated in the next round. Rangers again met strong opposition, but one hopes that they may soon find their feet amongst the elite; both Rangers and Motherwell went out on the 'away goals' rule, but Aberdeen lost both legs of their match. It was a sad chapter in foreign competition.

It was not long before the Skol Cup was under way. This popular competition, with the certainty of a result in every game, usually throws up a few surprises. In the early stages Brechin only just succumbed to St Mirren after penalties, while Raith Rovers disposed of Motherwell in no uncertain manner; Ayr beat St Johnstone, and Airdrie enjoyed a well-deserved victory at Pittodrie. They went on to put out Celtic – after penalties – and were only just stopped from reaching the final by a late penalty for Dunfermline. The Pars met Hibs in the final at Hampden, and the Edinburgh side were much the better on the occasion and thus clinched their place in Europe for next season.

The Scottish Cup saw a determined sally by the Highland League clubs.Champions Ross County went out in the second round having travelled about as far as footballers can in this country for a game: they had to cross the Tweed into England where they lost in a high-scoring game. Peterhead were within a few minutes of defeating Cowdenbeath, but they lost the replay convincingly. It was left to Caledonian and Huntly to carry the flag into the third round, where they disposed of the Second Division leaders at the time, Dumbarton and Clyde. Huntly enjoyed a home tie against Airdrie and it was one of the events of the season: although eventually the Broomfield team proved too strong, Huntly went down with flying colours. Caley went one better: two goals down to St Johnstone in Inverness, they staged a wonderful fight back, and the draw gave them the chance of a replay at McDiarmid Park. There the Premier Division team won easily in the end, but the game had fired the imagination of the North, and the A9 was full that evening. Aberdeen again lost at Pittodrie, in the third round, having drawn Rangers. It was a close game, and it is always a pity to see the giants at each other in such an early round. The quarter-finals should have led to semi-finals amongst the four teams topping the league at the time but it did not quite work out that way: Airdrie, having a memorable season in the cups, took out Hibs, and followed that by defeating Hearts in the semis after – it must be said – one very dreary game and a less drab replay. Meantime Rangers had disposed of Celtic in the other semi-final. It was an appalling night, and called for a good deal of character from the players. Ten-man Rangers were that keen to win, and they did. It was not Celtic's night: they hit the woodwork several times, but the goal that did come was from Ally McCoist. So to the final, always a great occasion, and one which both teams savoured. Rangers, without Cup success for a long spell, were not to be denied; but Airdrie went at it hard, and if the 2-1 scoreline flattered them, their effort was certainly rewarded.

The Premier Division had its interest. It was fairly soon obvious that there were the usual 'top half' and 'bottom half'. The Old Firm, the New Firm and the two Edinburgh teams occupied the upper part, and were soon away from the others. After that it was almost a double competition in one. At the top Hearts played tremendously well and held top spot into the New Year. Then Rangers drew ominously ahead, and there was no catching them. Celtic put a solid string of results together late on to overtake Hearts. Second position in the table was important, for it meant a passport to the European games; and both teams were out of the Cup. On the final league day, Celtic needed only a draw with their vastly superior goal difference, but they lost to Hibs while Hearts made no mistake against Falkirk. Hearts deserved the position after an excellent showing throughout the long programme, but Celtic must have been sick at heart to have stumbled after their fine run and when on the brink of success. However, their dismay was not to be long-lived, for soon they learnt that, because of the expansion in countries wishing to enter teams, Scotland was to have another entry to the UEFA Cup. Celtic breathed a sigh of relief, and we all hope that they can take advantage of their luck. Hibs, after a fine start, fell back but a strong finish saw them above Aberdeen. The Dons lost faith in themselves and did not have a good season. The new manager has a task ahead of him, but, with a bevy of good youngsters available and a solid backing of experience, he can hope to challenge for the top again, particularly if he can avoid the crippling injury list which the club sustained this season. Dundee United were enigmatic, and too often playing below their obvious capacity. They too have a fine squad of home-bred young players, and, with a gain in experience, the team's time must come again soon. They finished in fourth place in the league, but still deserved the report 'could do better'.

So much for the top end; what of the rest? Newcomers Falkirk and Airdrie, many experts' choice for the immediate drop, surprised many if not themselves and were soon comfortably placed above Dunfermline and St Mirren. The Pars had a poor league season and never quite came to terms with themselves. The new management team found matters beyond them, and early on they were destined for the First Division where they may hope to regroup and soon return to the top stream. The Buddies also looked doomed, but while they held on to hope for a long time, they ultimately failed to avoid the eleventh place. The other four teams shuffled around close to each other, but it was Airdrie who in the end took seventh place and thus added to their cups laurels.

In the First Division, Dundee made the pace for most of the season. For some time, Kilmarnock and Raith Rovers were in the hunt, but during the last weeks it became a race of three teams for the two places. Dundee were the best placed always, but Partick Thistle and Hamilton Academical fought it out till the end, and finally Partick just pipped Hamilton on goal difference while Dundee took the championship flag. At the bottom end of the table, Forfar never recovered from an abysmal start and they occupied the foot of the table for very nearly the whole season. Montrose dropped to eleventh, and despite their efforts, they could not catch the others, of whom Meadowbank were the nearest and most vulnerable.

The Second Division, too, had an exciting climax. Clyde were in the early lead, but they fell away after Christmas, and while East Fife hovered in the promotion area for a time, they managed to lose several games when it really mattered, and it was left to Dumbarton to forge to the front, with Cowdenbeath never far away; meantime Alloa had a splendid run, and swept up the table. Dumbarton secured their promotion a couple of games out, but on the final afternoon, Alloa played Cowdenbeath in a decider for the second promotion place. In front of a crowd of over 5000, there was one of those no-scoring draws which is full of excitement and interest. It was enough to confirm Cowdenbeath's return to the First Division.

There can be no doubt about which was the best team in Scotland: Rangers were well ahead of the rest, and they took the long season in their stride with their large playing squad which could cope with the temporary absence of two or three players. Although they lost the odd game, they were not often at a disadvantage, and their steady defence and inventive midfield gave their forwards ample opportunity. In Ally McCoist and Mark Hateley they had a partnership which took full advantage of the situation, and the former's quickness to take a chance made him the first Scot to win the coveted Golden Boot – a real boost to player, club and country, and a very popular award to a man who contrives to pass on his enjoyment of the game wherever he goes. Rangers yearn for European success, and perhaps they now have the team and the experience to make a serious challenge.

There has been a good deal of dissatisfaction, particularly amongst the upper echelon of clubs, with the forty-four game league. Again there are talks of breakaways and reorganizations. One cannot but have sympathy for those clubs who attract nearly all the paying public to their games and yet command only a small part of the league's voting power. The tail continues to wag the dog, and it is high time that there was a sensible and if possible unbiased assessment of the present day needs of football – not forgetting the fans. It would be good to see an end to the closed shop of the league teams, and the introduction, possibly, of some new blood, with teams having to fight to retain their places at the foot of the Second Division. But there seems little hope of such an assessment being made, certainly with any effect.

Before the international season switched to Sweden the Under-21s had a magnificent attack on the European stronghold, and were within a whisker of reaching the final.

The Scottish Football League was reconstructed into three divisions at the end of the 1974–75 season, so the usual relegation statistics do not apply. Further reorganization took place at the end of the 1985–86 season. From 1986–87, the Premier and First Division had 12 teams each. The Second Division remains at 14. From 1988–89, the Premier Division contained 10 teams, and the First Division 14 teams but in 1991–92 the Premier and First Division reverted to 12.

Scottish League championship wins: Rangers 42, Celtic 35, Aberdeen 4, Hearts 4, Hibernian 4, Dumbarton 2, Dundee 1, Dundee United 1, Kilmarnock 1, Motherwell 1, Third Lanark 1.

NORTHERN IRISH FOOTBALL 1991–92

The formidable task confronting Northern Ireland in qualifying for the World Cup final series was again underlined when they drew 2-2 with Lithuania after leading 2-0 in a Group Three tie at Windsor Park, Belfast. A valuable point had been dropped and manager Billy Bingham's hopes of collecting a maximum of eight for the first four matches, all at home, were dashed.

"It is disappointing. Now we must work harder in our remaining fixtures. There is a long way to go yet and I am still confident we can qualify," said Bingham, a pragmatic man and the eternal optimist, whose contract was renewed for another two years in January.

Northern Ireland's performances since Mexico, '86, admittedly a period of transition and rebuilding, have been indifferent, an amalgamation of the good and bad. Consequently, attendances have dwindled to such an extent that the Irish FA secretary David Bowen has revealed that only track advertising and television make Belfast matches financially viable. "Gate receipts don't generate sufficient revenue especially when there is heavy expenditure on away fixtures in a World Cup seven nation Group such as ours", he said.

Because of FIFA's all-seated regulations, Spion Kop and the other open terracing at Windsor Park has been closed for international and European club fixtures, but a new stand on the south side of the stadium is under construction which will bring the seating to 10,500 and the eventual capacity should be around 20,000, a far cry from the immediate post-war era when almost 60,000 watched the British championship series against England and Scotland.

Sponsorship, however, has continued to increase. Vauxhall back the international team and development of the game at all levels; Scottish and Newcastle Brewery have also entered the market along with other established sponsors Smirnoff, TNT, Wilkinson Sword, Cawoods, Budweiser and Bass. In fact, more than £250,000 is pumped into Ulster football, a remarkable figure for a semi-professional set-up.

There was no domination by a single club this season with the trophies spread around the Province. Glentoran won the Smirnoff Irish League, and TNT Gold Cup, Glenavon the Bass Irish Cup, Bangor the Lombard Ulster Cup, Omagh Town the Budweiser, Linfield the Wilkinson Sword League Cup and Cawoods the County Antrim Shield.

Portadown, double winners the previous season, qualified for the UEFA Cup as League runners-up but Linfield, without a major trophy, failed to make it into Europe for the third successive season — an unprecedented happening.

Dundela, managed by Mervyn Bell, were the kings of Irish junior football. They won the Wilkinson B Division and became the first club to go through the programme without a defeat. They also picked up the Smirnoff Knock Out Cup and were named Junior Team of the Year by the Northern Ireland Football Writers Association.

And, of course, there was the usual managerial carousel. Paul Malone moved to Ards from Larne who appointed Gary Erwin as his successor; Ian McFaul (Coleraine), Robbie Barr (Carrick Rangers) and Matt Bradley (Newry Town) resigned while Glenavon sacked Terry Nicholson amidst controversial circumstances; Nicholson has now signed a new three year agreement to take over financially struggling Newry.

There were celebrations, too; Linfield commemorated their seven trophy triumph of 1962 with a glittering banquet at the City Hall, Belfast, while the Glentoran team of 1967, arguably one of the finest in Irish football and which competed in the North American Soccer League as the Detroit Cougars, staged a 25th anniversary reunion in Belfast.

Players, now resident in many parts of the world, were flown to Northern Ireland for the function. A magnificent colour brochure was also produced highlighting the two month 12-match coast-to-coast tour.

The latest available information has been given regarding numbers of clubs and players registered with FIFA, the world governing body. Where known, official colours are listed. With European countries, League tables show a number of signs. * indicates relegated teams, + play-offs, *+ relegated after play-offs. In Yugoslavia, drawn matches result in penalty shoot-outs, the winners receiving a point.

There are 168 FIFA members plus others soon to be admitted. The four home countries, England, Scotland, Northern Ireland and Wales, are dealt with elsewhere in the Yearbook; but basic details appear in this directory.

EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP 1992

(Final tournament in Sweden)

Denmark's success in the 1992 European Championship blasted a gaping hole through the theory that there has to be endless preparation to achieve victory in an international tournament. Pitchforked into the finals on the exclusion of Yugoslavia, they survived unimpressive performances against England and Sweden before putting their game together against France. Then, despite crippling injuries in the match with Holland they managed to win the resultant penalty shoot-out to reach the final. There they displayed much of the character and determination which has epitomized their football down the years, but above all showed a high skill factor. While this was not as previously revealed in the 1984 European Championship and in the early stages of the 1986 World Cup, it was sufficient to win what was a largely disappointing tournament. The Danish win over Germany in the final was well merited, the Germans being forced to resort to the kind of questionable strong-arm tactics which sadly have risen to the surface in times of stress.

Denmark aside, it was difficult to find anything worth savouring, though Scotland gave everything and fully deserved their one victory over the CIS, who were the least enterprising team in a poor competition. The Scots had in Richard Gough, one of the outstanding players in Sweden.

The Dutch promised much, looked controlled and stylish until unsettled by the swift counter-attacking down the flanks by the Danes. They never recovered their composure and it would have been a travesty of justice had they survived the penalty shoot-out.

For Germany, it was a devastating disappointment to fail in the final. They had lost their inspirational captain and midfield maestro Lothar Matthäus before the tournament began. His successor Rudi Völler lasted one half of the first game before departing with an injured arm and they also suffered injuries to key defenders during the matches in Sweden, but were no more affected than the Danes in this respect.

France, who had been wrongly designated as favourites were clearly well past their peak, but Sweden again showed that the host country has an immense advantage and responded well enough to reach the semi-finals.

For England, it was another failure. Robbed of the services of key players themselves like Paul Gascoigne, John Barnes and Mark Wright, they were never allowed a settled side. Perhaps the saddest sight was the departure from international football of Gary Lineker, withdrawn in the match with Sweden, still one goal short of equalling Bobby Charlton's record of goals.

BRITISH AND IRISH INTERNATIONAL GOALSCORERS SINCE 1872

Where two players with the same surname and initials have appeared for the same country, and one or both have scored, they have been distinguished by reference to the club which appears first against their name in the international appearances section (pages 833–881). Unfortunately, four of the scorers in Scotland's 10-2 victory v Ireland in 1888 are unknown, as is the scorer of one of their nine goals v Wales in March 1878.

WOMEN'S NATIONAL LEAGUE

1991–92 will go down as arguably the most historic season in the development of organized women's football in this country. Under the leadership of chairman Tim Stearn and secretary Linda Whitehead the women's game demonstrated its ability to sustain a thriving new National League comprising three divisions of eight clubs. Closely following the guidelines established by clubs outside the Football League, women's football now has its own pyramid with promotion from the grass roots through to a Premier Division organized on a national basis.

The Doncaster Belles, who once again formed the nucleus of the England team, completed a unique League and Cup double. The South Yorkshire club who clinched the League championship with a 100 per cent record, added the Mycil WFA Cup to their list of honours by defeating Red Star Southampton 4-0 in the final which was televised for the fourth year running by Channel 4.

The success of the new competition has led to an expansion of the League structure to 30 clubs in season 1992–93 as women's football aims to consolidate its position as Britain's fastest growing participation sport.

FOOTBALL AND THE LAW

Football and the law now appear to be as inseparable as Gilbert and Sullivan, with comparable elements of tragi-comedy. They have travelled together for some time since I was advised by senior administrators about a decade ago:

"You lawyers keep out. We can take care of the game without your interference". Well, to paraphrase the song title, 'What a difference a decade makes'.

Last season ended as it began, with the FA in the commercial courts for the second time in 12 months. The first occasion which heralded last season's massive move to end a century-old structure was the FA's battle with the Football League to establish its Premier League. This time ITV sued the FA and the 22 Premier League clubs for alleged breach of confidence by the Premier League, claiming that BSkyB had been tipped off about a new ITV bid for televising the new formation's matches. Mr. Justice Ferris in London's High Court refused to grant an interim injunction to ITV which will now be substituted by a damages claim, linked to a renewal of the restraining claim.

The players, too, have been forced to court. A part-time non-Football League 19 year-old suffered a broken leg from a foul tackle. He sued in the Teeside Crown court and four years later (which is about the time taken generally for serious civil claims to be heard) at the age of 23 received last season £10,000 damages and costs against his opponent, who was doubtless insured. It was made up from £6,000 for pain and suffering and loss of amenity and £4,000 for loss of earning capacity as he was crippled from following his ordinary work.

More publicised was the referee's award of a foul against Torquay United's John Uzzell committed by Brentford's Gary Blissett. This has resulted in a police investigation and the charge of a serious assault which the Crown Prosecution Service has now persuaded local justices in Devon should be tried before a judge and jury in a Crown Court.

No less publicised was the decision of the French authorities to charge the Soccer Federation President, Jean Fournet-Fayard with manslaughter after 15 spectators died and 750 were injured when a temporary stand collapsed in Bastia on May 5: a circumstance similar to the 1902 Ibrox disaster for which, so far as I have been able to trace, no legal proceedings were instituted.

Parliament still has to make up its mind how to operate and create the laws required for the Taylor Report, and FIFA and the International Football Board have tinkered with the playing laws by outlawing the 'back-pass'.

If the English hierarchy had not been so dismissive in by-passing the lawyers a decade ago it is at least arguable that if the dribbling ball player had not been destroyed by the sustained brutal foul play in the Football League system, football as distinct from beefball could still have survived for the national game.

EDWARD GRAYSON

GM VAUXHALL CONFERENCE 1991–92

Without achieving the excitement which occurred on the last day of the previous season, only goal difference separated Colchester United the champions from Wycombe Wanderers who finished runners-up. Colchester thus returned to the Football League two years after losing their status.

For many weeks of the campaign, these two clubs were given a hard fight of it by Farnborough, thanks to their excellent away record which saw them concede only their first point on their ninth trip. Alas Farnborough were never as potent at home and in fact fell away shortly afterwards.

Both Colchester and Wycombe reported excellent attendances and they shared the top ten gates, although the average for the entire competition was slightly down on 1990–91.

HOWARD WILKINSON WINS PERSONAL ACCOLADE FOR LEEDS UNITED TITLE TRIUMPH: HE IS NAMED BARCLAYS BANK MANAGER OF THE YEAR 1992

Howard Wilkinson's achievement in taking Leeds United from the nether regions of the Second Division to the Barclays League title in three and a half years won him the Barclays

Bank Manager of the Year award for 1992. He was named for this prestigious accolade – the Barclays Trophy and a Barclays Higher Rate Deposit Account cheque for £5,000 – by a panel of 30 leading football journalists and commentators. The presentation was made by Mr Alastair Robinson, executive director of Barclays Bank.

It was Wilkinson's 9th managerial award: – his 6th at Leeds United from October 1989 with a Division Two monthly award, followed by 2nd Division Manager of the Season 1990, and overall Manager of the month prizes for November 1990 and October & November 1991: the first three were at Sheffield Wednesday – Division 2 monthly awards for September and November 1983 and November 1988.

BARCLAYS BANK DIVISIONAL MANAGERS OF THE SEASON 1991–92

Barclays Bank Divisional Managers of the Season – named in conjunction with The Football League were: Division Two – John Lyall, Ipswich Town; Division Three – Phil Holder, Brentford; Division Four – Jimmy Mullen, Burnley.

Each received a Barclays Eagle trophy and a cheque for £1,000.

LEAGUE MANAGERS ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Barclays Bank announced in May that it had become the official sponsor of the recently-formed League Managers Association in a three year sponsorship deal. To mark the arrangement, the Barclays Bank Achievement Award – to be decided by the votes of members of the LMA – has been introduced to the Barclays Bank Managers Awards portfolio.

"The award is designed to highlight the efforts of the manager who, in the opinion of his peers has worked wonders with the resources available to him" explained LMA chief executive John Camkin.

"It could go to a manager whose team has won a League or Cup trophy. On the other hand, it may go to someone who has performed a near-miracle to keep his club in its present division . . or even kept the club afloat by recruitment of youngsters and shrewd financial dealings.

"For too long these outstanding achievements have gone unrecognised by the game itself – and the general public. This is an opportunity for managers to honour a colleague whose work they respect and admire."

The first Barclays Bank Achievement award winner voted by the LMA is Dave Bassett of Sheffield United, whose second-half of the season run – following a disastrous first half – kept his club on course for next season's Premier League. He received a cheque for £1,000 and a Barclays Eagle trophy.

BARCLAYS YOUNG EAGLE OF THE YEAR

Roy Keane of Nottingham Forest and the Republic of Ireland – the 20 year-old £25,000 'snip' from Cobh Ramblers in the Opel League of Ireland – was named the Barclays Young Eagle of the Year by England team manager Graham Taylor, chairman of the voting panel which includes Jack Charlton, Jimmy Armfield, Trevor Cherry, Stan Cullis, Bill Nicholson, Bill Dodgin and Terry Yorath. Roy received a Silver Eagle trophy, a replica and a Barclays Higher Rate Deposit Account cheque for £5,000.

FROM THE CHAPLAIN

QUESTION TIME!

'From the chaplain?' someone asks impatiently. 'I thought Vicars only worked on Sundays', quips the humorist. 'Whatever have they got a parson for at a football club?' queries a frankly bemused supporter.

It may come as a surprise to new readers of this page in Rothmans, to discover that a substantial number of Football League clubs (and a few in Ireland and Scotland) have chaplains operating within them. But equally a glance through this Yearbook will show that something like a quarter of all the League clubs actually have their origins in a Church or Sunday School or were formed by a clergyman. Thus the game has had a strong ministerial involvement right from the beginning, even if that fact had, formerly, been largely forgotten, and the involvement today of chaplains at nearly forty Football League clubs can only be regarded as natural and wholesome. Indeed, if we may now pose the questions for a moment, the issue really becomes: 'With so many clubs benefiting from the involvement of a chaplain and clearly very happy with such a state of affairs, why aren't there even more chaplains?' Equally, 'What has any club got to lose by appointing such a man?' For, although it is sometimes necessary for a chaplain to move away and pass on his responsibilities to a successor, no club that has had such an appointment has ever regretted it, while many of them, right through the Divisions, are positively delighted at their chaplain's contribution to them.

Wicked!

'So, what does he do?'

Chaplains are non-assertive most of the time. Unless they have been asked to arrange a club event like a carol service they are low-key individuals who are often quiet and unassuming men, though they are passionate followers of the game and supporters of their club and often possess a wicked sense of humour! They are appointed to assist everyone in and related to football however they can, and they do this in all sorts of ways from providing a listening ear for an overstressed club official to a friendly visit to an injured player who may be feeling anxious, depressed or forgotten.

Someone has used the illustration of the tightrope walker to describe the chaplain's role: below the great man, almost unnoticed and usually quite unnecessary is the safety net. One day he slips and falls . . . but is safely caught – and how thankful he is for that net's presence, just when and where he needed it. That's the chaplain: a friend who is always there, available when life or football goes wrong, a compassionate heart, an experienced carer who is able to bring comfort, encouragement, challenge and support in just the right proportions – and in total confidence if necessary – when those are what is required.

But the chaplain isn't just there for the players in the first team. He is the chaplain for everyone at the club – the office staff, the groundsman and his team, the YTS lads, the stewards and gatemen, and of course the supporters, many of whom view the chaplain as their own personal minister.

'Well, perhaps we'll think about a chaplain at our club.' In that case you might be glad of the assistance of Christians In Sport, who are in touch with all the existing chaplains and could help in making contact with a potential chaplain who would be just right for your club. Please contact them – in confidence of course – at PO Box 93, Oxford OX2 7YP.

COACHING AND THE COACHES

The coaching system has undergone many changes in the last few years and is expected to be altered even more radically over the coming seasons. At present those persons wishing to obtain an official coaching qualification will have to pass the tests and examinations set by the Football Association, who pioneered their first educational scheme in 1934 by providing coaching services to grammar schools. Development of both the scheme and the coaches who have come through it, has reached outstanding levels and now there are three tiers of award. The initial award is the Preliminary Certificate; that is followed by the Intermediate Award; whilst the current highest achievement is the Full Coaching Licence. The Director of Coaching Charles Hughes has been instrumental in preparing plans for the future development of the system which is incorporated in the booklet entitled "The Blueprint for the Future of Football" published by the FA. In it are plans to not only keep and upgrade the three previously mentioned awards, but also to promote a final Diploma or Degree in Coaching studies.

Courses for the Preliminary Certificate are in the main run by the County Coaching Associations which are part of the County Football Associations of which there are 43 spread around the country although not necessarily corresponding to geographical boundaries as officially recognized. Historically County FA's date back to the late 19th century and have a number of functions, one of the most important of which is in coaching and education. Each county has an FA Coaching representative and some have an additional Football Development Officer.

Typically, a preliminary course run by a County Association will consist of 26 hours spent during split weeks to assess the student's ability, be they male or female over 17 years of age in practical coaching; the theory of coaching and the Laws of the Game. A student needs to be physically equipped to take part and those with limited experience are advised to undertake an FA Leaders Course before attempting the Preliminary Badge award. Similarly for those wanting to take the subsequent Intermediate and Full Awards, participation on a preparatory course is obligatory unless dispensation is obtained. Both the Intermediate and Advanced or Full Awards Courses take place on a residential basis held at the National Sports Centre, Lilleshall, Shropshire each summer. Full details of everything connected with coaching including a list of coaching books, films and videos can be obtained from the coaching department at the Football Association, 16 Lancaster Gate, London W2 3LW (phone 071-262 4542).

The concept of development of soccer recreation in England and Wales has been split into the twin sections of the programmes for Excellence and for the Community. The full list of the persons in control of these sections designated "directors", starting from the head of coaching and education is as follows:

LAWS OF THE GAME

The Laws of the Game and Decisions of the International Board that follow are reproduced with the special permission of FIFA, and the text is the official text as published by FIFA.

LAW I

THE FIELD OF PLAY

The Field of Play and appurtenances shall be as shown in the following plan:

(1) Dimensions. The field of play shall be rectangular, its length being not more that 130 yards nor less than 100 yards, and its breadth not more than 100 yards nor less than 50 yards. (In International Matches the length shall be not more than 120 yards nor less than 110 yards and the breadth not more than 80 yards nor less than 70 yards.) The length shall in all cases exceed the breadth.

(2) Marking. The field of play shall be marked with distinctive lines, not more than 5 inches in width, not by a V-shaped rut, in accordance with the plan, the longer boundary lines being called the touch-lines and the shorter the goal-lines. A flag on a post not less than 5ft high and having a non-pointed top, shall be placed at each corner; a similar flag-post may be placed opposite the half-way-line on each side of the field of play, not less than 1 yard outside the touch-line. A half-way-line shall be marked out across the field of play. The centre of the field of play shall be indicated by a suitable mark and a circle with a 10 yards radius shall be marked around it.

(3) The Goal-Area. At each end of the field of play two lines shall be drawn at right-angles to the goal-line, 6 yards from each goal-post. These shall extend into the field of play for a distance of 6 yards and shall be joined by a line drawn parallel with the goal-line. Each of the spaces enclosed by these goal-lines and the goal-line shall be called a goal-area.

(4) The Penalty-Area. At each end of the field of play two lines shall be drawn at right angles to the goal-line, 18 yards from each goal-post. These shall extend into the field of play for a distance of 18 yards and shall be joined by a line drawn parallel with the goal-line. Each of the spaces enclosed by these lines and the goal-line shall be called a penalty-area. A suitable mark shall be made within each penalty area, 12 yards from the mid-point of the goal-line, measured along an undrawn line at right-angles thereto. These shall be the penalty-kick marks. From each penalty-kick mark an arc of a circle, having a radius of 10 yards, shall be drawn outside the penalty-area.

(5) The Corner Area. From each corner-flag post a quarter circle, having a radius of 1 yard, shall be drawn inside the field of play.

(6) The Goals. The goals shall be placed on the centre of each goal-line and shall consist of two upright posts, equidistant from the corner-flags and 8 yards apart (inside measurement), joined by a horizontal cross-bar the lower edge of which shall be 8ft from the ground. The width and depth of the goal-posts and the width and depth of the cross-bars shall not exceed 5 inches (12cm). The goal-posts and the cross-bars shall have the same width.

Nets may be attached to the posts, cross-bars and ground behind the goals. They should be appropriately supported and be so placed as to allow the goal-keeper ample room.

Footnote

Goal nets. The use of nets made of hemp, jute or nylon is permitted. The nylon strings may, however, not be thinner than those made of hemp or jute.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) In International Matches the dimensions of the field of play shall be: maximum 110×75 metres; minimum 100×64 metres.

(2) National Associations must adhere strictly to these dimensions. Each National Association organising an International Match must advise the visiting Association, before the match, of the place and the dimensions of the field of play.

(3) The Board has approved this table of measurements for the laws of the Game:

130 yards	... 120 metres
120 yards	... 110

(4) The goal-line shall be marked the same width as the depth of the goal-posts and the cross-bar, so that the goal-line and goal-post will conform to the same interior and exterior edges.

(5) The 6 yards (for the outline of the goal-area) and the 18 yards (for the outline of the penalty-area) which have to be measured along the goal-line, must start from the inner sides of the goal-posts.

(6) The space within the inside areas of the field of play includes the width of the lines marking these areas.

(7) All Associations shall provide standard equipment, particularly in International Matches, when the laws of the Game must be complied with in every respect and especially with regard to the size of the ball and other equipment which must conform to the regulations. All cases of failure to provide standard equipment must be reported to FIFA.

(8) In a match played under the Rules of a Competition, if the cross-bar becomes displaced or broken, play shall be stopped and the match abandoned unless the cross-bar has been repaired and replaced in position or a new one provided without such being a danger to the players. A rope is not considered to be a satisfactory substitute for a cross-bar.

In a Friendly Match, by mutual consent, play may be resumed without the cross-bar provided it has been removed and no longer constitutes a danger to the players. In these circumstances, a rope may be used as a substitute for a cross-bar. If a rope is not used and the ball crosses the goal-line at a point which in the opinion of the Referee is below where the cross-bar should have been, he shall award a goal.

The game shall be restarted by the Referee dropping the ball at the place where it was when play was stopped.

(9) National Associations may specify such maximum and minimum dimensions for the cross-bars and goal-posts, within the limits laid down in Law I, as they consider appropriate.

(10) Goal-posts and cross-bars must be made of wood, metal or other approved material as decided from time to time by the International FA Board. They may be square, rectangular, round, half-round or elliptical in shape. Goal-posts and cross-bars made of other materials and in other shapes are not permitted. The goal-posts must be of white colour.

(11) 'Curtain-raisers' to International Matches should only be played following agreement on the day of the match, and taking into account the condition of the field of play, between representatives of the two Associations and the Referee (of the International Match).

(12) National Associations, particularly in International Matches, should — restrict the number of photographers around the field of play.

— have a line ('photographers' line') marked behind the goal-lines at least 2 metres from the corner flag going through a point situated at least 3.5 metres behind the intersection of the goal-line with the line marking the goal area to a point situated at least 6 metres behind the goal-posts.
— prohibit photographers from passing over these lines.
— forbid the use of artificial lighting in the form of 'flashlights'.

LAW II – THE BALL

The ball shall be spherical; the outer casing shall be of leather or other approved materials. No material shall be used in its construction which might prove dangerous to the players.

The circumference of the ball shall not be more than 28in and not less than 27in. The weight of the ball at the start of the game shall not be more than 16oz nor less than 14oz. The pressure shall be equal to 0.6–1.1 atmosphere (=600–1100g/cm^2) at sea level. The ball shall not be changed during the game unless authorised by the Referee.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The ball used in any match shall be considered the property of the Association or Club on whose ground the match is played, and at the close of play it must be returned to the Referee.

(2) The International Board, from time to time, shall decide what constitutes approved materials. Any approved material shall be certified as such by the International Board.

(3) The Board has approved these equivalents of the weights specified in the Law: 14 to 16 ounces = 396 to 453 grams.

(4) If the ball bursts or becomes deflated during the course of a match, the game shall be stopped and restarted by dropping the new ball at the place where the first ball became defective.

(5) If this happens during a stoppage of the game (place-kick, goal-kick, corner-kick, free-kick, penalty-kick or throw-in) the game shall be restarted accordingly.

LAW III – NUMBER OF PLAYERS

(1) A match shall be played by two teams, each consisting of not more than eleven players, one of whom shall be the goalkeeper.

(2) Substitutes may be used in any match played under the rules of an official competition under the jurisdiction of FIFA, Confederations or National Associations, subject to the following conditions:

(a) that the authority of the international association(s) or national association(s) concerned, has been obtained.

(b) that, subject to the restriction contained in the following paragraph (c), the rules of a competition shall state how many, if any, substitutes may be nominated and how many of those nominated may be used.

(c) that a team shall not be permitted to use more than two substitutes in any match, who must be chosen from not more than five players whose names may (subject to the rules of the competition) be required to be given to the referee prior to the commencement of the match.

(3) Substitutes may be used in any other match, provided that the two teams concerned reach agreement on a maximum number, not exceeding five, and that the terms of such agreement are intimated to the Referee, before the match. If the Referee is not informed, or if the teams fail to reach agreement, no more than two substitutes shall be permitted. In all cases, the substitutes must be chosen from not more than five players whose names may be required to be given to the Referee prior to the commencement of the match.

(4) Any of the other players may change places with the goalkeeper, provided that the Referee is informed before the change is made, and provided also, that the change is made during a stoppage in the game.

(5) When a goalkeeper or any other player is to be replaced by a substitute, the following conditions shall be observed.

(a) the Referee shall be informed of the proposed substitution, before it is made.

(b) the substitute shall not enter the field of play until the player he is replacing has left, and then only after having received a signal from the Referee.

(c) he shall enter the field during a stoppage in the game, and at the half-way line.

(d) a player who has been replaced shall not take any further part in the game.

(e) a substitute shall be subject to the authority and jurisdiction of the Referee whether called upon to play or not.

(f) the substitution is completed when the substitute enters the field of play, from which moment he becomes a player and the player whom he is replacing ceases to be a player.

Punishment:

(a) Play shall not be stopped for an infringement of paragraph 4. The players concerned shall be cautioned immediately the ball goes out of play.

(b) If a substitute enters the field of play without the authority of the Referee, play shall be stopped. The substitute shall be cautioned or sent off according to the circumstances. The game shall be restarted by the Referee dropping the ball at the place where it was when play was stopped, unless it was within the goal-area at that time, in which case it shall be dropped on the part of the goal-area line which runs parallel to the goal-line, at the point nearest to where the ball was when play was stopped.

(c) For any other infringement of the Law, the player concerned shall be cautioned, and if the game is stopped by the Referee, to administer the caution, it shall be restarted by an indirect free-kick, to be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the ball was when play was stopped. If the free-kick is awarded to a team within its own goal-area, it may be taken from any point within that half of the goal-area in which the ball was when play was stopped.

(d) If a competition's rules require the names of substitutes to be given to the Referee prior to the commencement of the match, then failure to do so will mean no substitutes can be permitted.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The minimum number of players in a team is left to the discretion of National Associations.

(2) The Board is of the opinion that a match should not be considered valid if there are fewer than seven players in either of the teams.

(3) A player who has been ordered off before play begins may be replaced only by one of the named substitutes. The kick-off must not be delayed to allow the substitute to join his team.

A player who has been ordered off after play has started may not be replaced.

A named substitute who has been ordered off, either before or after play has started, may not be replaced (this decision relates only to players who are ordered off under Law XII. It does not apply to players who have infringed Law IV).

(4) A player who has been replaced shall not take any further part in the game.

(5) For any offence committed on the field of play a substitute shall be subject to the same punishment as any other player whether called upon or not.

LAW IV – PLAYERS' EQUIPMENT

(1) (a) The basic compulsory equipment of a player shall consist of a jersey or shirt, shorts, stockings, shinguards and footwear.

(b) A player shall not wear anything which is dangerous to another player.

(2) Shinguards, which must be covered entirely by the stocking, shall be made of a suitable material (rubber, plastic, polyurethane or similar substance) and shall afford a reasonable degree of protection.

(3) Footwear (boots or shoes) must conform to the following standard.

(a) Bars shall be made of leather or rubber and shall be transverse and flat, not less than half an inch in width and shall extend the total width of the sole and be rounded at the corners.

(b) Studs which are independently mounted on the sole and are replaceable shall be made of leather, rubber, aluminium, plastic or similar material and shall be solid. With the exception of that part of the stud forming the base, which shall not protrude from the sole more than one quarter of an inch, studs shall be round in plan and not less than half an inch in diameter. Where studs are tapered, the minimum diameter of any section of the stud must not be less than half an inch. Where metal seating for the screw type is used, this seating must be embedded in the sole of the footwear and any attachment screw shall be part of the stud. Other than the metal seating for the screw type of stud, no metal plates even though covered with leather or rubber shall be worn, neither studs which are threaded to allow them to be screwed on to a base screw that is fixed by nails or otherwise to the soles of footwear, nor studs which, apart from the base, have any form of protruding edge rim or relief marking or ornament should be allowed.

(c) Studs which are moulded as an integral part of the sole and are not replaceable shall be made of rubber, plastic, polyurethene or similar soft materials. Provided that there are no fewer than ten studs on the sole, they shall have a minimum diameter of three-eighths of an inch (10mm). Additional supporting material to stabilise studs of soft materials, and ridges which shall not protrude more than 5mm from the sole and moulded to strengthen it, shall be permitted provided that they are in no way dangerous to other players. In all other respects they shall conform to the general requirements of this Law.

(d) Combined bars and studs may be worn, provided the whole conforms to the general requirements of this Law. Neither bars not studs on the soles or heels shall project more than three-quarters of an inch. If nails are used they shall be driven in flush with the surface.

The goalkeeper shall wear colours which distinguish him from the other players and from the Referee.

Punishment: For any infringement of this Law, the player at fault shall be sent off the field of play to adjust his equipment and he shall not return without first reporting to the Referee, who shall satisfy himself that the player's equipment is in order; the player shall only re-enter the game at a moment when the ball has ceased to be in play.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) In International Matches, International Competitions, International Club Competitions and friendly matches between clubs of different National Associations, the Referee, prior to the start of the game, shall inspect the players' equipment and prevent any player whose equipment does not conform to the requirements of this Law from playing until such time as it does comply. The rules of any competition may include a similar provision.

(2) If the Referee finds that a player is wearing articles not permitted by the Laws and which may constitute a danger to other players, he shall order him to take them off. If he fails to carry out the Referee's instruction, the player shall not take part in the match.

(3) A player who has been prevented from taking part in the game or a player who has been sent off the field for infringing Law IV must report to the Referee during a stoppage of the game and may not enter or re-enter the field of play unless and until the Referee has satisfied himself that the player is no longer infringing Law IV.

(4) A player who has been prevented from taking part in a game or who has been sent off because of an infringement of Law IV, and who enters or re-enters the field of play to join or rejoin his team, in breach of the conditions of Law XII(j), shall be cautioned. If the Referee stops the game to administer the caution, the game shall be restarted by an indirect free-kick, taken by a player of the opposing side, from the place where the ball was when the Referee stopped the game. If the free-kick is awarded to a side within its own goal-area, it may be taken from any point within that half of the goal-area in which the ball was when play was stopped.

LAW V – REFEREES

A Referee shall be appointed to officiate in each game. The authority and the exercise of the powers granted to him by the Laws of the Game commence as soon as he enters the field of play.

His power of penalising shall extend to offences committed when play has been temporarily suspended, or when the ball is out of play. His decision on points of fact connected with the play shall be final, so far as the result of the game is concerned. He shall:

(a) Enforce the Laws.

(b) Refrain from penalising in cases where he is satisified that, by doing so, he would be giving an advantage to the offending team.

(c) Keep a record of the game, act as time-keeper and allow the full or agreed time, adding thereto all time lost through accident or other cause.

(d) Have discretionary power to stop the game for any infringement of the Laws and to suspend or terminate the game whenever, by reason of the elements, interference by spectators, or other cause, he deems such stoppage necessary. In such a case he shall submit a detailed report to the competent authority, within the stipulated time, and in accordance with the provisions set up by the National Association under whose jurisdiction the match was played. Reports will be deemed to be made when received in the ordinary course of post.

(e) From the time he enters the field of play, caution any player guilty of misconduct or ungentlemanly behaviour and, if he persists, suspend him from further participation in the game. In such cases the Referee shall send the name of the offender to the competent authority, within the stipulated time, and in accordance with the provisions set up by the National Association under whose jurisdiction the match was played. Reports will be deemed to be made when received in the ordinary course of post.

(f) Allow no person other than the players and linesmen to enter the field of play without his permission.

(g) Stop the game if, in his opinion, a player has been seriously injured, have the player removed as soon as possible from the field of play, and immediately resume the game. If a player is slightly injured, the game shall not be stopped until the ball has ceased to be in play. A player who is able to go to the touch or goal-line for attention of any kind, shall not be treated on the field of play.

(h) Send off the field of play, any player who, in his opinion, is guilty of violent conduct, serious foul play, or the use of foul or abusive language.

(i) Signal for recommencement of the game after all stoppages.

(j) Decide that the ball provided for a match meets with the requirement of Law II.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Referees in International Matches shall wear a blazer or blouse the colour of which is distinct from the colours worn by the contesting teams.

(2) Referees for International Matches will be selected from a neutral country unless the countries concerned agree to appoint their own officials.

(3) The Referee must be chosen from the official list of International Referees. This need not apply to Amateur and Youth International Matches.

(4) The Referee shall report to the appropriate authority misconduct or any misdemeanour on the part of spectators, officials, players, named substitutes or other persons which take place either on the field of play or in its vicinity at any time prior to, during, or after the match in question so that appropriate action can be taken by the authority concerned.

(5) Linesmen are assistants of the Referee. In no case shall the Referee consider the intervention of a Linesman if he himself has seen the incident and from his position on the field, is better able to judge. With this reserve, and the Linesman neutral, the Referee can consider the intervention and if the information of the Linesman applies to that phase of the game immediately before the scoring of a goal, the Referee may act thereon and cancel the goal.

(6) The Referee, however, can only reverse his first decision so long as the game has not been restarted.

(7) If the Referee has decided to apply the advantage clause and to let the game proceed, he cannot revoke his decision if the presumed advantage has not been realised, even though he has not, by any gesture, indicated his decision. This does not exempt the offending player from being dealt with by the Referee.

(8) The Laws of the Game are intended to provide that games should be played with as little interference as possible, and in this view it is the duty of Referees to penalise only deliberate breaches of the Law. Constant whistling for trifling and doubtful breaches produces bad feeling and loss of temper on the part of the players and spoils the pleasure of spectators.

(9) By para. (d) of Law V the Referee is empowered to terminate a match in the event of grave disorder, but he has no power or right to decide, in such event, that either team is disqualified and thereby the loser of the match. He must send a detailed report to the proper authority who alone has power to deal further with the matter.

(10) If a player commits two infringements of a different nature at the same time, the Referee shall punish the more serious offence.

(11) It is the duty of the Referee to act upon the information of neutral Linesmen with regard to incidents that do not come under the personal notice of the Referee.

(12) The Referee shall not allow any person to enter the field until play has stopped, and only then, if he has given him a signal to do so, nor shall he allow coaching from the boundary lines.

LAW VI – LINESMEN

Two Linesmen shall be appointed, whose duty (subject to the decision of the Referee) shall be to indicate when the ball is out of play, which side is entitled to the corner-kick, goal-kick or throw-in, and when a substitute is desired. They shall also assist the Referee to control the game in accordance with the Laws. In the event of undue interference or improper conduct by a Linesman, the Referee shall dispense with his services and arrange a substitute to be appointed. (The matter shall be reported by the Referee to the competent authority.) The Linesmen should be equipped with flags by the Club on whose ground the match is played.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Linesmen, where neutral, shall draw the Referee's attention to any breach of the Laws of the Game of which they become aware if they consider that the Referee may not have seen it, but the Referee shall always be the judge of the decision to be taken.

(2) National Associations are advised to appoint official Referees of neutral nationality to act as Linesmen in International Matches.

(3) In International Matches, Linesmen's flags shall be of a vivid colour, bright reds and yellows. Such flags are recommended for use in all other matches.

(4) A Linesman may be subject to disciplinary action only upon a report of the Referee for unjustified interference or insufficient assistance.

LAW VII – DURATION OF THE GAME

The duration of the game shall be two equal periods of 45 minutes, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon, subject to the following: (a) Allowance shall be made in either period for all time lost through substitution, the transport from the field of injured players, time-wasting or other cause, the amount of which shall be a matter for the discretion of the Referee; (b) Time shall be extended to permit a penalty-kick being taken at or after the expiration of the normal period in either half.

At half-time the interval shall not exceed five minutes except by consent of the Referee.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) If a match has been stopped by the Referee, before the completion of the time specified in the rules, for any reason stated in Law V it must be replayed in full unless the rules of the competition concerned provide for the result of the match at the time of such stoppage to stand.

(2) Players have a right to an interval at half-time.

LAW VIII – THE START OF PLAY

(a) At the beginning of the game, choice of ends and the kick-off shall be decided by the toss of a coin. The team winning the toss shall have the option of choice of ends or the kick-off. The Referee having given a signal, the game shall be started by a player taking a place-kick (i.e. a kick at the ball while it is stationary on the ground in the centre of the field of play) into his opponents' half of the field of play. Every player shall be in his own half of the field and every player of the team opposing that of the kicker shall remain not less than 10 yards from the ball until it is kicked-off; it shall not be deemed in play until it has travelled the distance of its own circumference. The kicker shall not play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player.

(b) After a goal is scored, the game shall be restarted in like manner by a player of the team losing the goal.

(c) After half-time: when restarting after half-time, ends shall be changed and the kick-off shall be taken by a player of the opposite team to that of the player who started the game.

Punishment: For any infringement of this Law, the kick-off shall be retaken, except in the case of the kicker playing the ball again before it has been touched or played by another player; for this offence, an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred. A goal shall not be scored direct from a kick-off.

(d) After any other temporary suspension: when restarting the game after a temporary suspension of play from any cause not mentioned elsewhere in these Laws, provided that immediately prior to the suspension the ball has not passed over the touch or goal-lines, the Referee shall drop the ball at the place where it was when play was suspended, unless it was within the goal area at that time, in which case it shall be dropped on that part of the goal area line which runs parallel to the goal-line, at the point nearest to where the ball was when play was stopped. It shall be deemed in play when it has touched the ground; if, however, it goes over the touch or goal-lines after it has been dropped by the Referee, but before it is touched by a player, the Referee shall again drop it. A player shall not play the ball until it has touched the ground. If this section of the Law is not complied with the Referee shall again drop the ball.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) If, when the Referee drops the ball, a player infringes any of the Laws before the ball has touched the ground, the player concerned shall be cautioned or sent off the field according to the seriousness of the offence, but a free-kick cannot be awarded to the opposing team because the ball was not in play at the time of the offence. The ball shall therefore be again dropped by the Referee.

(2) Kicking-off by persons other than the players competing in a match is prohibited.

LAW IX – BALL IN AND OUT OF PLAY

The ball is out of play:

(a) When it has wholly crossed the goal-line or touch-line, whether on the ground or in the air.

(b) When the game has been stopped by the Referee.

The ball is in play at all other times from the start of the match to the finish including:

(a) If it rebounds from a goal-post, cross-bar or corner-flag post into the field of play.

(b) If it rebounds off either the Referee or Linesmen when they are in the field of play.

(c) In the event of a supposed infringement of the Laws, until a decision is given.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) The lines belong to the area of which they are the boundaries. In consequence, the touch-lines and the goal-lines belong to the field of play.

LAW X – METHOD OF SCORING

Except as otherwise provided by these Laws, a goal is scored when the whole of the ball has passed over the goal-line, between the goal-posts and under the cross-bar, provided it has not been thrown, carried or intentionally propelled by hand or arm, by a player of the attacking side, except in the case of a goalkeeper, who is within his own penalty-area.

The team scoring the greater number of goals during a game shall be the winner; if no goals, or an equal number of goals are scored, the game shall be termed a 'draw'.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Law X defines the only method according to which a match is won or drawn; no variation whatsoever can be authorised.

(2) A goal cannot in any case be allowed if the ball has been prevented by some outside agent from passing over the goal-line. If this happens in the normal course of play, other than at the taking of a penalty-kick, the game must be stopped and restarted where the ball came into contact with the interference.

(3) If, when the ball is going into goal, a spectator enters the field before it passes wholly over the goal-line, and tries to prevent a score, a goal shall be allowed if the ball goes into goal unless the spectator has made contact with the ball or has interfered with play, in which case the Referee shall stop the game and restart it by dropping the ball at the place where the contact or interference occurred.

LAW XI – OFF-SIDE

(1) A player is in an off-side position if he is nearer to his opponents' goal-line than the ball, unless:

(a) he is in his own half of the field of play, or

(b) he is not nearer to his opponents' goal-line than at least two of his opponents.

(2) A player shall only be declared off-side and penalised for being in an off-side position, if, at the moment the ball touches, or is played by, one of his team, he is, in the opinion of the Referee

(a) interfering with play or with an opponent, or

(b) seeking to gain an advantage by being in that position.

(3) A player shall not be declared off-side by the referee

(a) merely because of his being in an off-side position, or

(b) if he receives the ball, direct from a goal-kick, a corner-kick or a throw-in.

(4) If a player is declared off-side, the Referee shall award an indirect free-kick, which shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) Off-side shall not be judged at the moment the player in question receives the ball, but at the moment when the ball is passed to him by one of his own side. A player who is not in an off-side position when one of his colleagues passes the ball to him or takes a free-kick, does not therefore become off-side if he goes forward during the flight of the ball.

(2) A player who is level with the second last opponent or with the last two opponents is not in an off-side position.

LAW XII – FOULS AND MISCONDUCT

A player who intentionally commits any of the following nine offences:

(a) Kicks or attempts to kick an opponent;

(b) Trips an opponent, i.e. throwing or attempting to throw him by the use of the legs or by stooping in front of or behind him;

(c) Jumps at an opponent;

(d) Charges an opponent in a violent or dangerous manner;

(e) Charges an opponent from behind unless the latter be obstructing;

(f) Strikes or attempts to strike an opponent;

(g) Holds an opponent;

(h) Pushes an opponent;

(i) Handles the ball, i.e. carries, strikes or propels the ball with his hand or arm. (This does not apply to the goalkeeper within his own penalty-area); shall be penalised by the award of a direct free-kick to be taken by the opposing side from the place where the offence occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area in which case, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Should a player of the defending side intentionally commit one of the above nine offences within the penalty-area he shall be penalised by a penalty-kick.

A penalty-kick can be awarded irrespective of the position of the ball, if in play, at the time an offence within the penalty-area is committed.

A player committing any of the five following offences:

(1) Playing in a manner considered by the Referee to be dangerous, e.g. attempting to kick the ball while held by the goalkeeper.

(2) Charging fairly, i.e. with the shoulder, when the ball is not within playing distance of the players concerned and they are definitely not trying to play it.

(3) When not playing the ball, intentionally obstructing an opponent, i.e. running between the opponent and the ball, or interposing the body so as to form an obstacle to an opponent.

(4) Charging the goalkeeper except when he

(a) is holding the ball;

(b) is obstructing an opponent;

(c) has passed outside the goal-area.

(5) When playing as goalkeeper and within his own penalty-area

(a) from the moment he takes control of the ball with his hands, he takes more than four steps in any direction whilst holding, bouncing or throwing the ball in the air and catching it again, without releasing it into play, or, having released the ball into play before, during or after the four steps, he touches it again with his hands, before it has been touched or played by another player of the same team outside of the penalty-area or by a player of the opposing team either inside or outside of the penalty-area, or

(b) indulges in tactics which, in the opinion of the Referee, are designed merely to hold up the game and thus waste time and so give an unfair advantage to his own team—shall be penalised by the award of an indirect free-kick to be taken by the opposing side from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

A player shall be cautioned if:

(j) he enters or re-enters the field of play to join or rejoin his team after the game has commenced, or leaves the field of play during the progress of the game (except through accident) without, in either case, first having received a signal from the Referee showing him that he may do so. If the Referee stops the game to administer the caution the game shall be restarted by an indirect free-kick taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the ball was when the Referee stopped the game. If the free-kick is awarded to a side within its own goal-area it may be taken from any point within the half of the goal-area in which the ball was when play was stopped. If, however, the offending player has committed a more serious offence he shall be penalised according to that section of the law he infringed.

(k) he persistently infringes the Laws of the Game;

(l) he shows by word or action, dissent from any decision given by the Referee;

(m) he is guilty of ungentlemanly conduct.

For any of these last three offences, in addition to the caution, an indirect free-kick shall also be awarded to the opposing side from the place where the offence occurred unless a more serious infringement of the Laws of the Game was committed. If the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, a free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

A player shall be sent off the field of play, if:

(n) in the opinion of the Referee he is guilty of violent conduct or serious foul play;

(o) he uses foul or abusive language;

(p) he persists in misconduct after having received a caution.

If play be stopped by reason of a player being ordered from the field for an offence without a separate breach of the Law having been committed, the game shall be resumed by an indirect free-kick awarded to the opposing side from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

If, in the opinion of the referee, a player who is moving towards his opponents' goal with an obvious opportunity to score a goal is intentionally and physically impeded by unlawful means, i.e. an offence punishable by a free-kick (or a penalty-kick), thus denying the attacking player's team the aforesaid goal-scoring opportunity, the offending player shall be sent off the field of play for serious foul play in accordance with Law XII (n).

(1) If the goalkeeper either intentionally strikes an opponent by throwing the ball vigorously at him or pushes him with the ball while holding it, the Referee shall award a penalty-kick, if the offence took place within the penalty-area.

(2) If a player deliberately turns his back to an opponent when he is about to be tackled, he may be charged but not in a dangerous manner.

(3) In case of body-contact in the goal-area between an attacking player and the opposing goalkeeper not in possession of the ball, the Referee, as sole judge of intention, shall stop the game if, in his opinion, the action of the attacking player was intentional, and award an indirect free-kick.

(4) If a player leans on the shoulders of another player of his own team in order to head the ball, the Referee shall stop the game, caution the player for ungentlemanly conduct and award an indirect free-kick to the opposing side.

(5) A player's obligation when joining or rejoining his team after the start of the match to 'report to the Referee' must be interpreted as meaning 'to draw the attention of the Referee from the touch-line'. The signal from the Referee shall be made by a definite gesture which makes the player understand that he may come into the field of play; it is not necessary for the Referee to wait until the game is stopped (this does not apply in respect of an infringement of Law IV), but the Referee is the sole judge of the moment in which he gives his signal of acknowledgement.

(6) The letter and spirit of Law XII do not oblige the Referee to stop a game to administer a caution. He may, if he chooses, apply the advantage. If he does apply the advantage, he shall caution the player when play stops.

(7) If a player covers up the ball without touching it in an endeavour not to have it played by an opponent, he obstructs but does not infringe Law XII para. 3 because he is already in possession of the ball and covers it for tactical reasons whilst the ball remains within playing distance. In fact, he is actually playing the ball and does not commit an infringement; in this case, the player may be charged because he is in fact playing the ball.

(8) If a player intentionally stretches his arms to obstruct an opponent and steps from one side to the other moving his arms up and down to delay his opponent, forcing him to change course, but does not make 'bodily contact' the Referee shall caution the player for ungentlemanly conduct and award an indirect free-kick.

(9) If a player intentionally obstructs the opposing goalkeeper, in an attempt to prevent him from putting the ball into play in accordance with Law XII, 5(a), the Referee shall award an indirect free-kick.

(10) If, after a Referee has awarded a free-kick a player protests violently by using abusive or foul language and is sent off the field, the free-kick should not be taken until the player has left the field.

(11) Any player, whether he is within or outside the field of play, whose conduct is ungentlemanly or violent, whether or not it is directed towards an opponent, a colleague, the Referee, a Linesman or other person, or who uses foul or abusive language, is guilty of an offence, and shall be dealt with according to the nature of the offence committed.

(12) If, in the opinion of the Referee a goalkeeper intentionally lies on the ball longer than is necessary, he shall be penalised for ungentlemanly conduct and

(a) be cautioned and an indirect free-kick awarded to the opposing team;

(b) in case of repetition of the offence, be sent off the field.

(13) The offence of spitting at opponents, officials or other persons, or similar unseemly behaviour shall be considered as violent conduct within the meaning of section (n) of Law XII.

(14) If, when a Referee is about to caution a player, and before he has done so, the player commits another offence which merits a caution, the player shall be sent off the field of play.

LAW XIII – FREE-KICK

Free-kicks shall be classified under two headings: 'Direct' (from which a goal can be scored direct against the offending side), and 'Indirect' (from which a goal cannot be scored unless the ball has been played or touched by a player other than the kicker before passing through the goal).

When a player is taking a direct or an indirect free-kick inside his own penalty-area, all of the opposing players shall be at least 10 yards (9.15m) from the ball and shall remain outside the penalty area until the ball has been kicked out of the area. The ball shall be in play immediately it has travelled the distance of its own circumference and is beyond the penalty-area. The goalkeeper shall not receive the ball into his hands, in order that he may thereafter kick it into play. If the ball is not kicked direct into play, beyond the penalty-area, the kick shall be retaken.

When a player is taking a direct or an indirect free-kick outside his own penalty-area, all of the opposing players shall be at least ten yards from the ball, until it is in play, unless they are standing on their own goal-line, between the goal-posts. The ball shall be in play when it has travelled the distance of its own circumference.

If a player of the opposing side encroaches into the penalty-area, or within ten yards of the ball, as the case may be, before a free-kick is taken, the Referee shall delay the taking of the kick, until the Law is complied with.

The ball must be stationary when a free-kick is taken, and the kicker shall not play the ball a second time, until it has been touched or played by another player.

Notwithstanding any other reference in these Laws to the point from which a free-kick is to be taken:

1. Any free-kick awarded to the defending team, within its own goal-area, may be taken from any point within that half of the goal-area in which the free-kick has been awarded.

2. Any indirect free-kick awarded to the attacking team within its opponents' goal-area shall be taken from that part of the goal-area line which runs parallel to the goal-line, at the point nearest to where the offence was committed.

Punishment: If the kicker, after taking the free-kick, plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the spot where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) In order to distinguish between a direct and indirect free-kick, the Referee, when he awards an indirect free-kick, shall indicate accordingly by raising an arm above his head. He shall keep his arm in that position until the kick has been taken and retain the signal until the ball has been played or touched by another player or goes out of play.

(2) Players who do not retire to the proper distance when a free-kick is taken must be cautioned and on any repetition be ordered off. It is particularly requested of Referees that attempts to delay the taking of a free-kick by encroaching should be treated as serious misconduct.

(3) If, when a free-kick is being taken, any of the players dance about or gesticulate in a way calculated to distract their opponents, it shall be deemed ungentlemanly conduct for which the offender(s) shall be cautioned.

LAW XIV – PENALTY-KICK

A penalty-kick shall be taken from the penalty-mark and, when it is being taken, all players with the exception of the player taking the kick, properly identified, and the opposing goalkeeper, shall be within the field of play but outside the penalty-area, and at least 10 yards from the penalty-mark. The opposing goalkeeper must stand (without moving his feet) on his own goal-line, between the goal-posts, until the ball is kicked. The player taking the kick must kick the ball forward; he shall not play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player. The ball shall be deemed in play directly it is kicked, i.e. when it has travelled the distance of its circumference. A goal may be scored directly from a penalty-kick. When a penalty-kick is being taken during the normal course of play, or when time has been extended at half-time or full-time to allow a penalty-kick to be taken or retaken, a goal shall not be nullified if, before passing between the posts and under the cross-bar, the ball touches either or both of the goal-posts or the cross-bar, or the goal-keeper, or any combination of these agencies, providing that no other infringement has occurred.

Punishment: For any infringement of this Law:

(a) by the defending team, the kick shall be retaken if a goal has not resulted.

(b) by the attacking team other than by the player taking the kick, if a goal is scored it shall be disallowed and the kick retaken.

(c) by the player taking the penalty-kick, committed after the ball is in play, a player of the opposing team shall take an indirect free-kick from the spot where the infringement occurred. If, in the case of paragraph (c), the offence is committed by the player in his opponents' goal-area, the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) When the Referee has awarded a penalty-kick, he shall not signal for it to be taken, until the players have taken up position in accordance with the Law.

(2) (a) If, after the kick has been taken, the ball is stopped in its course towards goal, by an outside agent, the kick shall be retaken.

(b) If, after the kick has been taken, the ball rebounds into play, from the goalkeeper, the cross-bar or a goal-post, and is then stopped in its course by an outside agent, the Referee shall stop play and restart it by dropping the ball at the place where it came into contact with the outside agent.

(3) (a) If, after having given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, the Referee sees that the goalkeeper is not in his right place on the goal-line, he shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball has been kicked, the goalkeeper moves his feet, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

(c) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a player of the defending team encroaches into the penalty-area, or within 10 yards of the penalty-mark, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

(4) (a) If, when a penalty-kick is being taken, the player taking the kick is guilty of ungentlemanly conduct, the kick, if already taken, shall be retaken, if a goal is scored.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a colleague of the player taking the kick encroaches into the penalty-area or within ten yards of the penalty-mark, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. If a goal is scored, it shall be disallowed, and the kick retaken.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

(c) If, in the circumstances described in the foregoing paragraph, the ball rebounds into play from the goalkeeper, the cross-bar or a goal-post and a goal has not been scored, the Referee shall stop the game, caution the player and award an indirect free-kick to the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred, subject to the over-riding conditions imposed in Law XIII.

(5) (a) If, after the referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, the goalkeeper moves from his position on the goal-line, or moves his feet, and a colleague of the kicker encroaches into the penalty-area or within 10 yards of the penalty mark, the kick, if taken, shall be retaken.

The colleague of the kicker shall be cautioned.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a player of each team encroaches into the penalty area, or within 10 yards of the penalty-mark, the kick if taken, shall be retaken.

The players concerned shall be cautioned.

(6) When a match is extended, at half-time or full-time, to allow a penalty-kick to be taken or retaken, the extension shall last until the moment that the penalty-kick has been completed, i.e. until the Referee has decided whether or not a goal is scored, and the game shall terminate immediately the Referee has made his decision. After the player taking the penalty-kick has put the ball into play, no player other than the defending goalkeeper may play or touch the ball before the kick is completed.

A goal is scored when the ball passes wholly over the goal-line.

(a) direct from the penalty-kick.

(b) having rebounded from either goal-post or the cross-bar, or

(c) having touched or been played by the goalkeeper.

The game shall terminate immediately the Referee has made his decision.

(7) When a penalty-kick is being taken in extended time:

(a) the provisions of all of the foregoing paragraphs, except paragraphs (2)(b) and (4)(c) shall apply in the usual way, and

(b) in the circumstances described in paragraphs (2)(b) and (4)(c) the game shall terminate immediately the ball rebounds from the goalkeeper, the cross-bar or the goal-post.

LAW XV – THROW-IN

When the whole of the ball passes over a touch-line, either on the ground or in the air, it shall be thrown in from the point where it crossed the line, in any direction, by a player of the team opposite to that of the player who last touched it. The thrower at the moment of delivering the ball must face the field of play and part of each foot shall be either on the touch-line or on the ground outside the touch-line. The thrower shall use both hands and shall deliver the ball from behind and over his head. The ball shall be in play immediately it enters the field of play, but the thrower shall not again play the ball until it has been touched or played by another player. A goal shall not be scored direct from a throw-in.

Punishment:

(a) If the ball is improperly thrown in, the throw-in shall be taken by a player of the opposing team.

(b) If the thrower plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player, an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) If a player taking a throw-in, plays the ball a second time by handling it within the field of play before it has been touched or played by another player, the Referee shall award a direct free-kick.

(2) A player taking a throw-in must face the field of play with some part of his body.

(3) If, when a throw-in is being taken, any of the opposing players dance about or gesticulate in a way calculated to distract or impede the thrower, it shall be deemed ungentlemanly conduct for which the offender(s) shall be cautioned.

(4) A throw-in taken from any position other than the point where the ball passed over the touch-line shall be considered to have been improperly thrown.

LAW XVI – GOAL-KICK

When the whole of the ball passes over the goal-line excluding that portion between the goal-posts, either in the air or on the ground, having last been played by one of the attacking team, it shall be kicked direct into play beyond the penalty-area from a point within that half of the goal-area nearest to where it crossed the line, by a player of the defending team. A goalkeeper shall not receive the ball into his hands from a goal-kick in order that he may thereafter kick it into play. If the ball is not kicked beyond the penalty-area, i.e. direct into play, the kick shall be retaken. The kicker shall not play the ball a second time until it has touched—or been played by—another player. A goal shall not be scored direct from such a kick. Players of the team opposing that of the player taking the goal-kick shall remain outside the penalty-area whilst the kick is being taken.

Punishment: If a player taking a goal-kick plays the ball a second time after it has passed beyond the penalty-area, but before it has touched or been played by another player, an indirect free-kick shall be awarded to the opposing team, to be taken from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

Decisions of the International Board

(1) When a goal-kick has been taken and the player who has kicked the ball touches it again before it has left the penalty-area, the kick has not been taken in accordance with the Laws and must be retaken.

LAW XVII – CORNER-KICK

When the whole of the ball passes over the goal-line, excluding that portion between the goal-posts, either in the air or on the ground, having last been played by one of the defending team, a member of the attacking team shall take a corner-kick, i.e. the whole of the ball shall be placed within the quarter circle at the nearest corner-flag post, which must not be moved, and it shall be kicked from that position. A goal may be scored direct from such a kick. Players of the team opposing that of the player taking the corner-kick shall not approach within 10 yards of the ball until it is in play, i.e. it has travelled the distance of its own circumference, nor shall the kicker play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player.
Punishment:

(a) If the player who takes the kick plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player, the Referee shall award an indirect free-kick to the opposing team, to be taken from the place where the infringement occurred, unless the offence is committed by a player in his opponents' goal-area, in which case the free-kick shall be taken from a point anywhere within that half of the goal-area in which the offence occurred.

(b) For any other infringement the kick shall be retaken.

1991 AMENDMENTS

LAW XII – FOULS AND MISCONDUCT

Three new decisions:

Decision No (15): If, in the opinion of the referee, a player who is moving toward his opponents' goal with an obvious opportunity to score a goal is intentionally impeded by an opponent, through unlawful means, i.e. an offence punishable by a free kick (or a penalty kick), thus denying the attacking player's team the aforesaid goal-scoring opportunity, the offending player shall be sent off the field of play for serious foul play in accordance with Law XII (n).

Decision No (16): If, in the opinion of the referee, a player, other than the goalkeeper within his own penalty area, denies his opponents a goal, or an obvious goal-scoring opportunity, by intentionally handling the ball, he shall be sent off the field of play for serious foul play in accordance with Law XII (n).

Decision No (17): The International FA Board is of the opinion that a goalkeeper, in the circumstances described in Law XII 5(a), will be considered to be in control of the ball when he takes possession of the ball by touching it with any part of his hands or arms. Possession of the ball would include the goalkeeper intentionally playing the ball, but would not include circumstances where, in the opinion of the referee, the ball rebounds accidentally from the goalkeeper, for example after he has made a save.

LAW XII – FOULS AND MISCONDUCT

On any occasion when a player deliberately kicks the ball to his own goalkeeper, the goalkeeper is not permitted to touch it with his hands. If, however, the goalkeeper does touch the ball with his hands, he shall be penalised by the award of an indirect free-kick, to be taken by the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred, subject to the over-riding conditions of Law XIII.

LAW XIII – FREE-KICK

Notwithstanding any other reference in these Laws to the point from which a free-kick is to be taken:

1. Any free-kick awarded to the defending team, within its own goal-area, may be taken from any point within the goal-area.

OBITUARIES

Adams, Ted (b. 30.11.06; d. 28.11.91). Born in the shadow of Anfield this goalkeeper came out of retirement to sign for Burnley and make more than 100 League appearances for them. He was on the books of Liverpool for a time and also played for Barrow, Wrexham and Southport. During the Second World War he guested for New Brighton, Chester and Wrexham.

Alsop, Gilbert (b. Frampton Cotterill, nr. Bristol, September 1908; d. April 1992). Best remembered for his goalscoring feats with Walsall in the 1930s, this powerful centre-forward netted 159 League and Cup goals in two spells with the Saddlers—his best season being 1934–35 when he had 44. Began with Bath City in 1927 and also appeared with Coventry City and West Bromwich Albion before retiring in 1949 and spending more than 20 years on Walsall's ground staff.

Badham, Jack (b. Birmingham 31.1.19; d. January 1992). Joined Birmingham City as an amateur in 1934 but with the war intervening did not turn professional until 1946, making his League debut two years later. Originally a wing-half he made his name as a right-back, but appeared in many other positions. Played in 175 League games before becoming manager of Stourbridge in 1956.

Bastin, Cliff (b. Exeter 14.3.12; d. Exeter 4.12.91). One of the all-time greats, Bastin won every honour open to him before he was 20. Noted for his coolness under pressure and his lethal shot he created a First Division record in 1932–33 by scoring 33 goals from the outside-left position. No wonder his total of 150 League goals is still an Arsenal record. Made League debut with Exeter City at the age of 15 and cost Arsenal £2000 in 1929. Won five League Championship and two FA Cup winners' medals during nearly 18 years with the Gunners. Capped 21 times.

Cliff Bastin

Jack Kelsey

Bigg, Bob (?; d. August 1991). Raiding Crystal Palace outside-left 1934–39. The only Palace winger to notch a hat-trick on the first day of a season. Scored 41 goals.

Compton, Terry (b. Bristol 28.11.31; d. Bristol 6.10.91). A centre-half who had 10 years with Bristol City 1948–58 although the consistent good form of such players as Jack White and Ernie Peacock restricted Compton's League appearances to 45. His best season was 1956–57 when his career was coming to an end.

Combe, Bobby (b. Edinburgh 29.1.24; d. Cyprus 19.11.91). Among the stars of that most successful Hibernian side of the early post-war years, this inside-forward helped them win the League Championship in 1948, 1951 and 1952. Capped as a schoolboy he gained three full caps in 1948. After retiring he was Hibs' assistant trainer and then Dumbarton manager for short spells.

Crapnell, Jimmy (b. Paisley 4.6.03; d. Paisley 24.12.91). One of the smallest full-backs to play for Scotland between the wars, he gained nine caps while with Airdrieonians before being transferred to Motherwell in 1933. After the war he managed Alloa Athletic and St Johnstone.

Davies, Alan (b. Manchester 5.12.61; d. Horton, nr. Swansea 4.2.92). Apprenticed to Manchester United, this midfield player made his League debut with them in May 1982. Gained six Welsh U-21 caps and 11 full caps before his tragic death—found dead in his fume-filled car. Had spells with Newcastle United, Swansea City and Bradford City, as well as on loan to Charlton Athletic and Carlisle United.

Elvy, Reg (b. Leeds 25.11.20; d. Northampton July 1991). Although he had previously made a number of League appearances with Halifax Town and Bolton Wanderers, this lanky goalkeeper really made his name with Blackburn Rovers after he had passed his 31st birthday. Rovers signed him in an injury emergency and he made 192 League appearances for them including 152 without a break. Finished his career at Northampton Town whom he joined in 1956.

Fagan, Willie (b. Musselburgh 20.2.17; d. Wellingborough 29.2.92). Made debut with Glasgow Celtic in 1934–35 and joined Preston 1936. A year later he moved to Liverpool and became an established favourite with that club at centre-forward or inside-left. Was on the losing side in two FA Cup Finals—with Preston 1937 and Liverpool 1950. During the war he played for Scotland and in 1947 he helped Liverpool win the League championship.

Fenton, Ted (b. Forest Gate 1914; d. 12.7.92). First signed for West Ham at the age of 14 and was allowed to develop as a centre-half with Colchester before his League debut as an inside-forward with the Hammers in 1932. Later switched to right-half and was a first team regular until moving to Colchester as player-manager after the war. Returned to Upton Park first as assistant maager, then manager from 1950–61. Also manager of Southend United 1961–65.

Ferrier, Ron (b. Cleethorpes 26.4.14; d. Cleethorpes 11.10.91). After two years with Grimsby Town, he made his League debut with Manchester United in September 1935 as an inside-forward. Once scored seven goals in a game for United's reserves. Oldham Athletic converted him into a centre-forward soon after paying a four-figure fee for him in March 1938 and he became their top scorer. Ended playing career at Lincoln in 1948.

Fogg, William (b. Bangor 1903; d. Birkenhead October 1991). Began as a right-winger with Bangor and had two seasons with Tranmere Rovers 1924–26 before returning to his home-town club. Huddersfield Town brought him back to the Football League in 1928 and he subsequently served Clapton Orient and New Brighton, making a total of 309 League appearances to 1938.

Gallagher, Patsy (b. Bridge of Weir, Renfrewshire 21.8.09; d. Scotland 4.1.92). A typically clever Scottish ball-player he had over 10 seasons with Sunderland 1927–38 before his £5000 transfer to Stoke where injury slowed him down. Was inside-left in the Sunderland side that won the League Championship in 1936 and the FA Cup a year later. One Scottish cap.

Gibson, Colin (b. Normanby 16.9.23; d. Stourbridge 27.3.92). Joined Cardiff City in 1942 and was the only English-born player to appear regularly in the side in their Third Division (South) championship-winning side in 1946–47. A winger, he moved to Newcastle United 1948, Aston Villa 1949, and Lincoln City 1956. Totalled 288 peace-time Football League appearances.

Girling, Howard (b. Birmingham 24.5.22; d. January 1992). Recovered from war wound to play for Crystal Palace as an outside-left 1942–47. Brentford obtained his transfer in February 1947 and he had just over four seasons with them before closing his League career with Bournemouth.

Grieves, Ken (b. Sydney, Australia 27.8.25; d. January 1992). An all-rounder who played cricket for New South Wales 1945–47, Rawtenstall 1947–48, and Lancashire 1949–64 (captain 1963–64) as well as goalkeeper for Bury 1947–49, Bolton Wanderers 1951–55, and Stockport County 1957–58.

Gunson, J. Gordon (b. Chester 1.7.04; d. Broughton, Clwyd, September 1991). League debut with Wrexham 1926 after being on Nelson's books. Snapped up by Sunderland in May 1929, he made 19 League appearances then transferred to Liverpool in March 1930. An ever-present winger in the Liverpool side of 1931–32, he lost his place to Alf Hanson late in the following season and was allowed to leave for Swindon before returning to Wrexham to round off his career in 1935–36. Mistakenly selected to play for Wales before he informed them of his correct place of birth.

Hall, Alex (b. West Calder, nr. Edinburgh 1908; d. Edinburgh 5.9.91). Another member of Sunderland's League Championship and Cup-winning teams of 1936 and 1937 respectively, this full-back was signed from Dunfermline Athletic in 1929. Soon after the outbreak of World War Two he returned to Scotland and played for Hibernian.

Hayhurst, Bert (b. Birdwell, Yorkshire 17.9.05; d. Reading 8.11.91). A product of Frickley Colliery, he developed into an all-rounder, playing cricket for Warwickshire and soccer for Reading whom he joined in 1933 after a season with Luton Town. Became Reading's regular centre-half helping them to reach the FA Cup 5th round in 1935 and making a total of 220 League appearances before retiring during the war.

Hulme, Joe (b. Stafford 26.8.04; d. London 26.9.91). Another star of Arsenal's great trophy-winning side of the 1930s, Joe Hulme was one of the fastest wingers of his generation. Blackburn Rovers introduced him to League football after signing him from York City in 1924 and he was an immediate success. Arsenal obtained his transfer in 1925. In 13 years with the Gunners he scored 107 goals in 333 League games, winning four League Championship, and two FA Cup winners' medals. A surprise move to Huddersfield in January 1938 enabled him to make his fifth Wembley FA Cup Final appearance that year although on the losing side. Capped nine times for England he also played cricket for Middlesex 1929–39, hitting 1000 runs in a season three times.

Jackson, Peter (b. Stoke 23.1.37; d. September 1991). One of a pair of twin brothers (the other is David) who played alongside each other with Wrexham, Bradford City and Tranmere Rovers. Peter began as an amateur with Wrexham in 1954 and was best known as a wing-half with Bradford City where he made over 200 League and Cup appearances between 1954 and 1961 when he moved to Tranmere. In four of those seasons at Bradford City his father was manager.

Jordan, Clarrie (b. South Kirby 20.6.22; d. 24.2.92). Created a club record for Doncaster Rovers by scoring 42 League and Cup goals in 1946–47 when they won the championship of Division 3(N). Transferred to Sheffield Wednesday in February 1948 but his goalscoring talents were not exploited with that club before knee injuries began to affect his play. Had both legs amputated in the mid-1980s.

Kasher, Joseph (b. Crook 14.1.1894; d. January 1992). One of the oldest former Football League players when he died a few days before his 98th birthday. After playing for Willington and Crook Town and serving in World War I he joined Sunderland in 1919. Made 86 First Division appearances at centre-half then moved to Stoke City in 1922. Finished League career with Accrington Stanley 1925–27.

Kelsey, Jack (b. Llansamlet, nr. Swansea 19.11.29; d. 19.3.92). Spotted with junior side Winch Wen, he was signed by Arsenal in 1949 and was eventually acknowledged as one of the safest goalkeepers of his day, going on to make more appearances for the Gunners than any other goalkeeper (over 400 first-team games) before being forced to retire in 1962 because of a back injury. Made 41 appearances for Wales (a record for a goalkeeper) and also represented Great Britain v Rest of Europe in 1955.

Knowles, Cyril (b. Fitzwilliam, nr. Pontefract 17.3.44; d. 31.8.91). Was on both Manchester United's and Wolves' books as a junior before joining Middlesbrough and turning professional in 1962. A full-back who enjoyed attacking, he cost Spurs £45,000 when they secured his transfer in 1964. He played in over 400 League games during 12 years at White Hart Lane, helping his side win the FA Cup in 1967, the League Cup in 1971 and 1973, and the UEFA Cup in 1972, as well as appearing in four full internationals. He managed Darlington, Torquay United and Hartlepool until ill-health forced his retirement.

Leach, Mike (b. London 16.1.47; d. London 13.1.92). A product of Queen's Park Rangers' youth policy in the 1960s, Mike Leach developed from an apprentice and England Youth international to become a real favourite in the attack where he made over 300 League and Cup appearances. After being given a free transfer in March 1978 he played in the USA with Detroit Express and ended his League career with a brief spell at Cambridge United.

Luke, Bill (b. Acklington, Northumberland 1890; d. Northumberland January 1992). Joined Preston North End from Bedlington United in the summer of 1912 and helped them return to the First Division in his one season at Deepdale where he usually played on the right-wing. Joined Hartlepool United in 1913 but a leg injury during World War One ended his career. Was the League's oldest former professional when he died.

McDowall, Les (b. India 25.10.12; d. 18.8.91). Both played in and later managed Manchester City promotion-winning teams. Joined Sunderland from Scottish junior football in 1932 but was given few first-team games before moving to Manchester City in 1938. The war intervened but he was the regular centre-half in the side that won promotion to the First Division in 1947. Appointed Wrexham's player-manager for a brief spell in 1949, he returned to City as manager the following year, steering the club back to the First Division in 1951. Responsible for the development of the "Revie Plan", he remained in charge until 1963 when his resignation followed City's relegation and he became manager of Oldham for two years.

McKennan, Peter (b. Airdrie 16.7.18; d. Dundonald 28.9.91). Whether at inside or centre-forward, this powerfully built player was always difficult to stop. Had his first chance with Partick Thistle at the age of 16 and guested for Chelsea during the war before joining West Bromwich Albion in 1947. Subsequently helped Leicester City, Brentford, Middlesbrough and Oldham Athletic, starring in the "Latics'" side that won promotion to the Second Division in 1953. Was player-coach of Coleraine from 1954 until retiring in 1956. Represented the Scottish League in two games.

Moralee, Matthew (b. Mexborough 21.2.12; d. September 1991). An inside-left best known for his work with Grimsby Town 1931–36, but also appeared with Aston Villa, Leicester City and Shrewsbury Town before returning to his original club, Denaby United, in the early part of the war.

Mudie, Jackie (b. Dundee 10.4.30; d. Stoke-on-Trent 2.3.92). Considering his lack of height and weight, this player was a remarkable success as an inside-forward and centre-forward with Blackpool whom he joined as a 16-year-old amateur in 1946. Made over 300 appearances, scoring 143 League goals, playing in two FA Cup Finals, then transferred to Stoke City in 1961. This skilful player helped the Potters win promotion to the First Division in 1962. Made a short move to Port Vale in November that year. Played in 17 consecutive Scottish internationals.

Oakes, John (b. Northwich 13.9.05; d. Perth, Australia 20.3.92). Signed by Charlton from Aldershot in March 1936 to help clinch promotion to the First Division and remained with them until 1947 when he finished his career with a season at Plymouth Argyle. Appeared in 1946 FA Cup Final at age of 40. Began professional career with Nottingham Forest in 1929 and later served Southend United before scoring 41 goals for Spennymoor in 1933–34. Aldershot turned him into a centre-half during nearly two seasons with them.

Robinson, Ernie (b. Shiney Row, nr. Sunderland 1908; d. Vancouver, Canada July 1991). A right-back who was with Tunbridge Wells, Notts County, Nelson, Barnsley, Sheffield United and Carlisle United between 1928 and the outbreak of the war. Coached in Holland after it. Emigrated to Canada in 1985.

Rudham, "Doug" K. R. (b. Johannesburg 3.5.28; d. Johannesburg August 1991). A goalkeeper who made 66 first team appearances for Liverpool between November 1954 and November 1960 when the Reds were in the Second Division. Capped as an amateur for South Africa.

Stamps, Jackie (b. Maltby 2.12.18; d. Burton-on-Trent November 1991). A tough centre-forward who began with Mansfield Town in 1937, but first attracted attention with New Brighton a year later and was soon snapped up by Derby County scoring two goals on his debut at inside-right. After the war he was regularly scoring goals again for Derby until his transfer to Shrewsbury Town in 1953. Starred in Derby's FA Cup victory in 1946 when he scored two of their goals in extra time to help beat Charlton Athletic. In his later years he was totally blind.

Starling, Ronnie (b. Pelaw, Newcastle-upon-Tyne 11.10.09; d. Sheffield 17.12.91). Had two years with Hull City as an amateur before signing professional in 1927. A clever ball-playing inside-forward he was a delight to watch. Newcastle United made up for missing him as a schoolboy by obtaining his transfer in 1930 but it was as a Sheffield Wednesday player that he really earned fame (FA Cup medal 1935) making 176 League appearances for them from 1932 to 1937 when he moved to Aston Villa and helped them regain First Division status. Retired during the war after guesting for Walsall. Two England caps.

Walker, Willis (b. Gosforth 24.11.1892; d. Keighley 4.12.91). An all-round sportsman who played cricket for Notts (1913–37) and kept goal for either the reserves or first teams of Sheffield United, Doncaster Rovers, Leeds City, South Shields, Bradford PA and Stockport County between 1912 and 1927. He hit 1000 runs in a season 10 times.

Whatmore, Ernie (b. Kidderminster 25.4.1900; d. Kidderminster 30.7.91). Bristol Rovers signed this inside or centre-forward from Shrewsbury in 1923 and he made 134 League appearances for them. Moved to QPR in 1928 and added another 78 League appearances in four seasons.

ROTHMANS FOOTBALL YEARBOOK

The 23rd edition of Rothmans Football Yearbook gives full details of the 1992 European Championship finals in Sweden and of the draw for the 1994 World Cup, including all the fixtures for the qualifying competition and a directory of venues for the finals in the USA. There is also detailed coverage of British clubs in Europe as well as a special feature on women's football, which is growing rapidly at both domestic and world level.

A six-page section is devoted to each Football League club and the comprehensive statistics are complemented by additional historical reference material and a full-page photograph of the 1991-92 squad. Included here are all the facts and figures relating to the League's newest member.

The events of 1991-92 are documented in a day-by-day diary of the season and other regular features include information on the Scottish League, Wales and Northern Ireland; international football; the GM Vauxhall Conference; amateur, schools and university soccer. Complete with a fixture list for 1992-93, Rothmans Football Yearbook remains the indispensable companion to the football season.
